THE NEW CWS

Kentucky is changing the game with its facilities as well. UK is in the process of $165 million of football facility construction. Shown here are artist renderings of Commonwealth Stadium, which will feature a $120 million renovation in time for the 2015 season. UK also will construct a new $45 million football complex featuring practice, office and support facilities.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

2014 OUTLOOK

The goals for Kentucky football continue to be broad-based as the Wildcats head into their second season under Coach Mark Stoops. “We need to get better at every position on the field,” Stoops said. “I was pleased with the team’s overall effort last season and a lot of individual players made improvement.”

“We got better in the spring. I was very happy with the team’s energy. We’re by no means a finished product but I like this group, I like where we’re headed and we certainly are making some strides.”

Stoops welcomes back 15 primary returning starters from last season, seven on offense and eight on defense. And, as a byproduct of the team’s youth over the last two seasons, 36 returnees have started at least one game during their careers.

OFFENSE

A year ago, despite the adjustment to a new system, key injuries and youth at the playmaking positions, the Kentucky offense still managed to average three more points per game and 26 more total offensive yards than the previous season.

Those were baby steps to be sure, but progress nonetheless. This year, Stoops and offensive coordinator Neal Brown hope to make greater strides and play at the quicker tempo displayed by the highly successful offenses at Brown’s previous coaching stops.

Much of the attention of the media and public during preseason practice will be focused on the quarterback position, where four players are contending for the starting role.

Sophomore Patrick Towles, redshirt freshman Reese Phillips and true freshman Drew Barker competed in spring practice and all three made a good impression.

Towles showed significant improvement in the spring after taking advantage of a redshirt season. He threw for 233 yards and a touchdown as a freshman reserve in 2012. Phillips showed good accuracy and poise in practice while redshirting last season.

Barker graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled in January. He completed 65.9 percent of his passes during his prep career, piling up 6,264 passing yards and 62 touchdowns. He also rushed for 3,931 yards and 51 TDs.

There’s also a wild card contender in junior Maxwell Smith, who missed the spring while recovering from an injury and will return to action in August. He’s by far the most experienced of the bunch, having started 11 games during his career and thrown for 3,070 yards and 21 touchdowns.

In 2013, the competition went down to the week of the first game before a starter was announced. The coaches hope the decision can be made sooner this time.

“We won’t rush it just for the sake of naming a starter,” Stoops said, “but we’d like to reach a conclusion earlier than we did last season in order to help our timing between the starting quarterback and receivers.”

Whoever wins the Kentucky QB derby has a corps of wide receivers that is mostly intact from last season.

The returning wideouts include seniors Javess Blue (43 catches for 586 yards and four touchdowns last season) and Demarco Robinson (20 for 213, including two TDs); junior Joey Herrick (3 for 22); and sophomores Ryan Timmons (32 for 338, 2 TDs), Jeff Badet (22 for 285, 1 TD) and Alexander Montgomery (16 for 137, 2 TDs).

The group has shown big-play potential as Blue, Timmons and Badet each had plays of 50 yards or longer last season. Also in the mix are true freshmen Thaddeus Snodgrass and T.V. Williams, explosive speedsters who graduated from high school in December and enrolled in January. Three more frosh receivers will join the team in August and take their shot at the playing rotation.

Although the tight end position was hit hard by graduation, two players are available with significant game experience. Senior Ronnie Shields has caught 12 passes during his career and fellow senior Steven Borden caught three passes for 63 yards in 2013, his first season at UK transferring from junior college.

There is excellent talent and depth at running back. Sophomore Jojo Kemp, who runs hard and showed a knack for breaking tackles, led the team in rushing last year with 482 yards and three touchdowns while averaging 4.8 yards per carry.

The additional candidates at running back are intriguing. Braylon Heard is now eligible after sitting out 2013 as a transfer from Nebraska. The UK coaches raved about Heard’s ability during his transfer year. He rushed for 452 yards and a 5.9 average per carry during two seasons with the Cornhuskers.

The unknown factor is junior Josh Clemons, who has been out since the middle of the 2011 season because of injuries. He rushed for 279 yards that year, combining speed, strength and the ability to make tacklers miss. He looked better than ever in the spring and his availability could be a big boost for the backfield.

Coaches also will take a long look at two freshman backs, January enrollee Mikel Horton and highly regarded Stanley “Boom” Williams.

Senior D.J. Warren is a capable fullback when the staff opts to use two-back sets and Jeff Witthuhn provides solid depth there.

With four starting linemen returning from last season, the coaches are optimistic that the offensive line will take a lead role in the improvement sought by the offense.

Senior Darrian Miller is a two-year starter at left tackle and has been a capable blindside protector. Junior Zach West also is a two-year regular at left guard and the coaches were pleased with his consistency in the spring.

Jojo Kemp led the team in rushing last season with 482 yards and proved to be a tough man to get on the ground.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Two players stepped into the starting line last year, right tackle Jordan Swindle and center Jon Toth, both of whom earned praise from the coaches for their toughness and competitiveness.

Additional returnees with some game experience include senior tackle Teven Eatmon-Nared, senior guard Max Godby, junior guard Jack Gruenschlaeger, junior tackle Shaquille Love and sophomore center Zach Myers.

Redshirt freshman Ramsey Meyers took the lead as the starting right guard in the spring. Three promising redshirts are competing in the line as well, guard/center Nick Haynes, tackle Kyle Meadows and guard Cole Mosier, plus some incoming freshman signees.

DEFENSE

Heading into the spring, there is good news/bad news for the Kentucky defense.

The difficult part of the equation is that defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot must replace the center of his defense from last season -- All-SEC middle linebacker Avery Williamson and starting tackles Donte Rumph and Mister Cobble, all three of whom signed NFL contacts.

The good news, which the coaches are confident will more than balance the difficulty, is that eight starters and several additional lettermen are back.

Anchoring UK's 4-3 defense are senior defensive ends Bud Dupree and Za'Darius Smith, each of whom received all-conference mention last season.

Dupree is UK's leading returning tackler, having made 61 stops last season. He also led the squad with 9.5 tackles for loss and seven quarterback sacks en route to second-team All-SEC honors. Dupree also has the athleticism necessary to play an outside linebacker post when the Wildcats switch to a 3-4 alignment.

Smith totaled 59 tackles last season and was just behind Dupree in big plays, making 6.5 tackles for loss with six sacks. He received third-team All-SEC accolades.

Junior Farrington Huguenin and sophomore Jason Hatcher provide experienced depth. Hatcher, who had 19 tackles and a pair of sacks last season, backs up Dupree and also has the athleticism to play linebacker in the 3-4 scheme.

There is optimism in rebuilding the tackles. Seniors Mike Douglas and Christian Coleman, along with junior-college transfers C.J. Johnson and Melvin Lewis, give the team some veteran presence. Douglas made 28 tackles last season, including 1.5 tackles for loss. Redshirt freshmen Regie Meant and Jacob Hyde provide more depth and competition. Several talented freshman signees could make their mark at tackle or end.

Junior Khalid Henderson is the top returnee at linebacker, having made 51 tackles last season. Fellow senior TraVaughn Pascal showed good speed last season while racking up 39 tackles, including four for loss.

Junior Josh Forrest made a strong move during the spring and begins August as the starter at middle linebacker. He made 16 stops last season and blocked two kicks on special teams. Another pleasant development of the spring was junior Daron Blaylock, who moved from safety to linebacker and played well. Senior Tyler Brause also has some game experience.

UK often played a 4-2-5 system last year, with versatile cornerback Blake McClain stepping into the nickelback role. He made 59 tackles last season and tied for the team lead in pass breakups with five. Safeties Eric Dixon and Marcus McWilson also can play the nickel.

The competition is intense at cornerback. Senior Nate Willis and junior Fred Tiller are the returning starters. Willis tied for the team lead in pass breakups with five while Tiller had four PBU.

Junior Cody Quinn has been a part-time starter during his career and had three breakups last season. Sophomore J.D. Harmon, who led the team in 2012 with two interceptions, looks to return after a redshirt season. Sophomore Jaleel Hytchye has good potential.

Senior Ashely Lowery (46 tackles, one interception last season) is a two-year starter at safety. Yet another positive development of the spring was the addition of junior-college transfer A.J. Stamps, who moved from cornerback to safety and made a great impression at the new position. He had four interceptions and nine PBU last season while helping lead East Mississippi to the national junior-college championship.

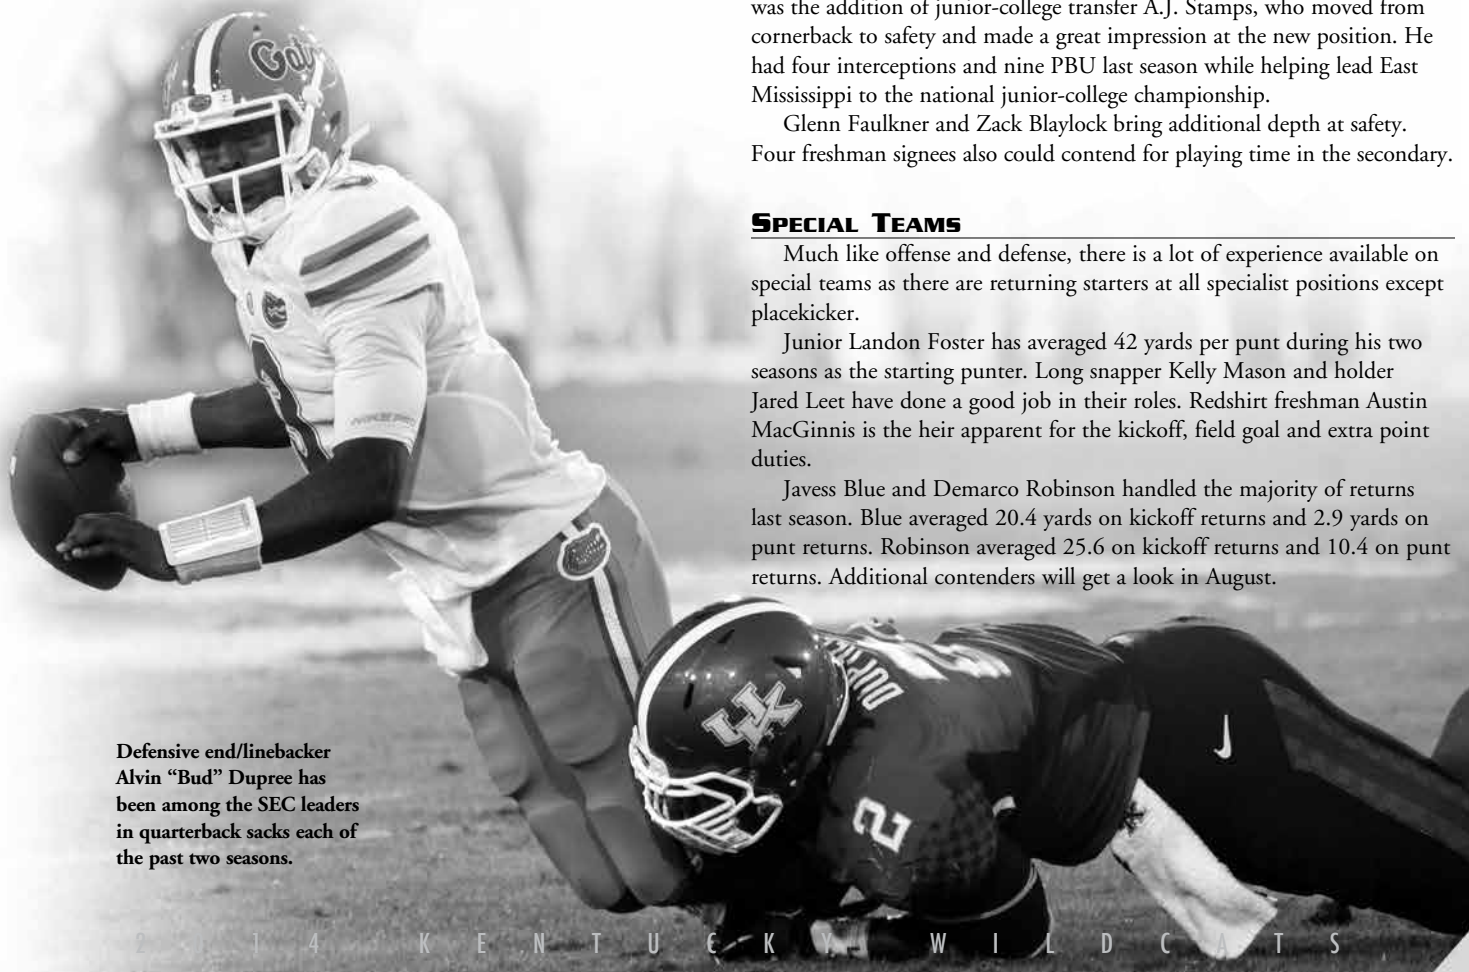

Glenn Faulkner and Zack Blaylock bring additional depth at safety. Four freshman signees also could contend for playing time in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Much like offense and defense, there is a lot of experience available on special teams as there are returning starters at all specialist positions except placekicker.

Junior Landon Foster has averaged 42 yards per punt during his two seasons as the starting punter. Long snapper Kelly Mason and holder Jared Leet have done a good job in their roles. Redshirt freshman Austin MacGinnis is the heir apparent for the kickoff, field goal and extra point duties.

Javess Blue and Demarco Robinson handled the majority of returns last season. Blue averaged 20.4 yards on kickoff returns and 2.9 yards on punt returns. Robinson averaged 25.6 on kickoff returns and 10.4 on punt returns. Additional contenders will get a look in August.

Defensive end/linebacker Alvin "Bud" Dupree has been among the SEC leaders in quarterback sacks each of the past two seasons.

CAT SCRATCHES

Redshirt freshman Reese Phillips (12), true freshman Drew Barker (7) and sophomore Patrick Towles competed for the starting quarterback position during UK's 2014 spring practice period. The competition at quarterback will continue into the preseason.

15 REGULAR STARTERS RETURN; 36 PLAYERS HAVE STARTED AT LEAST ONCE

A total of 15 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2013 return for the Wildcats, seven on offense and eight on defense.

On offense, UK has four starters back in the offensive line, along with wide receivers Javess Blue, Demarco Robinson and Ryan Timmons.

There are eight returning regulars on defense, including ends Bud Dupree and Za'Darius Smith, linebacker Khalid Henderson and the entire secondary – cornerbacks Nate Willis and Fred Tiller along with safeties Ashely Lowery and Eric Dixon, plus cornerback/nickelback Blake McClain.

A lot of young players have seen the field for UK in the last two seasons. UK has 49 returning lettermen but it is very interesting to note that 36 of those players have started at least one game on offense or defense during their careers.

QUARTERBACK COMPETITION BRIGHTENS IN SPRING

Although a starter was not named during spring drills, the picture at quarterback brightened considerably during the spring.

Sophomore Patrick Towles, redshirt freshman Reese Phillips and true freshman Drew Barker competed for the position and each had some shining moments, according to the coaching staff.

"Overall, the quarterback play was better in the spring than it was last season," offensive coordinator Neal Brown said. "So, whoever wins the job should make us better there, regardless of who that person is."

Brown also said often during the spring that he believes the quarterback play also should improve as the offense matures at other positions.

"It's easy to put the credit or blame for the offense all on the quarterback," Brown explained. "But, we have to get better at every position – the backs, the receivers and in the line – for the quarterback to have success."

Towles is eager for game action after redshirting last season. He threw for 233 yards and a touchdown as a freshman reserve in 2012. Phillips showed good accuracy and poise in practice while redshirting last season.

Barker graduated from Conner High School (Burlington, Ky.) a semester early and enrolled in January. He completed 65.9 percent of his passes during his prep career, piling up 6,264 passing yards and 62 touchdowns. He also rushed for 3,931 yards and 51 TDs.

There is an additional card in the quarterback deck. Junior Maxwell Smith sat out the spring while recovering from shoulder surgery and looks to return in August. Obviously, he will be rusty after missing the spring but he has by far the most game experience. Smith has started 11 games during his career, throwing for 3,070 yards and 21 touchdowns.

ALL-SEC ENDS TURN DOWN NFL

Both of UK's returning starters at defensive end -- Bud Dupree and Za'Darius Smith -- received All-Southeastern Conference honors last season.

Dupree totaled 61 tackles while leading the team with 9.5 tackles for loss, including seven quarterback sacks. He also caused two fumbles and broke up a pass. He was a second-team all-league pick by The Associated Press and Phil Steele's College Football.

Smith made 59 stops, 6.5 for loss, featuring six sacks. He led the team in quarterback hurries with six, broke up one pass and recovered a fumble. He was a third-team all-conference pick by CollegeSportsMadness.com

Both players went through the National Football League evaluation process but decided to come back to UK for their final campaigns.

CLEMONS, HEARD BOLSTER DEEP BACKFIELD

The addition of junior running backs Josh Clemons and Braylon Heard, who had to sit out the 2013 season for different reasons, have bolstered the UK running back position.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Clemons has been out of game action since midseason 2011 because of injuries. He showed great promise in the first half of 2011, rushing for 279 yards and two TDs. The coaches limited his action somewhat in the spring in order to give him plenty of rest but were very happy with what they saw as Clemons seemed to run, catch and block with no ill effects.

Heard, a transfer from Nebraska, rushed 77 times for 452 yards and a 5.9-yard average for the Cornhuskers during the 2011 and '12 seasons.

Along with sophomore Jojo Kemp, who led the Wildcats with 482 rushing yards last season, and true freshmen Mikel Horton and Stanley "Boom" Williams, UK will have a deep and talented backfield in the 2014 season.

STADIUM RENOVATION UNDERWAY

Construction has begun on the $120 million renovation of Commonwealth Stadium, a project that features a new look for the exterior of the stadium, wider and redesigned concourses, new concession stands and rest rooms, new suites and other premium seating, a recruiting room and a new press box.

It's a two-year project but there should be minimal disruption for the 2014 season. Part of the southside upper deck has been removed in order to begin the new suite/press box complex and there will be some utility and other site preparation work done this year. Seating capacity for the stadium will be approximately 62,000 for the upcoming campaign.

The majority of the construction will begin immediately after the last home game on Nov. 8. The reworked stadium is expected to be complete in time for the 2015 season.

Meanwhile, UK also has begun planning for a $45 million football office/practice complex that will be built on the south end of the existing Nutter Field House. Construction of that facility is expected to commence following the season, with completion targeted for 2016.

"STOOPS TROOPS" HELP UK REGISTER NATION'S SECOND-LARGEST ATTENDANCE INCREASE

The fan response to Coach Mark Stoops and his staff has been encouraging in the year-plus that the new coaches have been on board.

"Stoops Troops" first responded when a school-record 50,831 turned out for the 2013 Blue/White Spring Game. It was the sixth-largest spring game attendance in the nation and numerous recruits who were there that day noted that the strong turnout played a key role in their eventual decision to sign with Kentucky.

The 2013 regular season saw a sharp uptick in attendance. Kentucky averaged 59,472 per game in 2013, an increase of 9,781 from the previous season. It was the second-largest increase in the nation.

Overall, Kentucky ranked 29th in the nation in average attendance per game. UK has ranked in the nation's top 30 in attendance 13 times since the 1999 season.

REMARKABLE RECRUITING

Undoubtedly, the most amazing facet of Kentucky football since the arrival of Mark Stoops has been the remarkable recruiting done by the coach and his relentless staff. For more on UK's recruiting, and the national media response, see page 18.

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Three of UK's annual opponents – Louisville, Tennessee and Vanderbilt – will be played at different points in the schedule beginning in 2014.

As requested by the SEC and the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Kentucky vs. Louisville game will be moved to the final game of the regular season on an annual basis. The leagues moved the game as a result of adjustments in scheduling brought on by the conference expansions undertaken in both the SEC and ACC.

The switch of the Kentucky-Louisville game date means that there will be four SEC vs. ACC in-state rivalry matchups on the final weekend of the season. The Florida-Florida State, Georgia-Georgia Tech and South Carolina-Clemson tilts also are on that weekend.

The UK vs. UofL game had been played early in the schedule since the series was renewed in 1994. For Kentucky, moving the game to the end of the regular season also will require another adjustment. Tennessee has been scheduled as the Wildcats' final foe since 1953 and the Volunteers will now move to Nov. 15, 2014, meaning that UK will close the regular season with a pair of rivalry games.

One other significant timing change comes with the Vanderbilt game. Having played VU in November every season since 1953, the Wildcats will host the Commodores on Sept. 27, 2014.

The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 20 national championships, including 15 of the last 19 titles.

KENTUCKY

THE FOOTBALL STAFF

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS

In his introductory news conference on Dec. 2, 2012, Mark Stoops promised the Big Blue Nation that he would “attack every day.”

After a year on the job, it's clear that Stoops is fulfilling that promise.

The Kentucky head coach has been a bundle of energy, both on the field and on the recruiting trail, as he builds the UK program.

Stoops began by hiring a set of coaches who averaged less than 38 years of age and mirrored his work ethic and enthusiasm. The staff has embraced coaching and recruiting with remarkable vigor.

The results have been quickly evident. With only two months to complete 2013 recruiting, Stoops and staff moved that signing class from the 60s in the national rankings to as high as No. 29.

Then, with a full year available, Kentucky's 2014 group was a consensus top-25 class, UK's highest ranking ever in the Internet era of recruiting evaluation.

Now, Stoops turns his attention to his second season of action, where he will work to continue the turnaround of Wildcat on-field fortunes. Part of the acclaimed Stoops coaching family, he has a history of dramatic improvements during his time as defensive coordinator at Florida State and Arizona.

Stoops was defensive coordinator at FSU from 2010-12, inheriting a unit ranked 108th in the NCAA in total defense and turning it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense.

FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops, with Mark being the youngest of the three. Mike is currently the defensive coordinator on Bob's staff at Oklahoma.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. Like his brothers, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

UK LANDS CONSENSUS TOP-25 RECRUITING CLASS

Coach Mark Stoops and his relentless staff brought home Kentucky's highest-rated class in the Internet era of recruiting evaluation, scoring a No. 17 ranking on Rivals.com, No. 20 by ESPN.com, No. 21 by Scout.com and No. 22 by 247Sports.com.

Fifteen members of the 28-man class received a four-star ranking in at least one of the above-mentioned services. Ten of the signees were listed at least once in the Rivals Top 250 players, the ESPN Top 300, the Scout Top 300 or the 247 Top 300.

The national media took notice and were generous in praise of UK's recruiting success. Here are some excerpts from what was written:

Can Kentucky Ride its Improved Recruiting to SEC Success?

Stoops and his staff have not hesitated to compete against big-name programs on the recruiting trail. And Kentucky has won more than a few of those battles: The Wildcats beat out Louisville, Tennessee and South Carolina for Barker; Auburn, Clemson and LSU for all-purpose back Stanley Williams; and Alabama, Notre Dame and Ohio State for Elam.

— Chris Johnson, Sports Illustrated

Kentucky – yes Kentucky – An SEC Presence in Recruiting

"We're definitely not afraid to compete with anybody in the country," Stoops said.

In a recruiting cycle that many coaches say featured rampant player poaching, Kentucky would have been a logical poaching victim. But the Wildcats locked up much of its class a year ago and didn't lose traction. About sixteen of its 28 players committed before the end of last summer, Stoops said.

— Jeremy Fowler, CBSSports.com

Most Impressive Classes in the SEC

No. 2: Kentucky

Rundown: This ain't your grandfather's Kentucky. It's not your father's or your older brother's, either. Mark Stoops didn't have the highest ranked recruiting class in the country or even the SEC, but the top-20 class far outpaced even the highest expectations. The signees speak for themselves -- an infusion of young talent desperately needed for the road ahead -- but the overall statement Stoops and his staff made going out and landing the best of the best was huge.

Nabbing four-star defensive lineman Matt Elam from Alabama sent shockwaves through college football. It not only said that Kentucky was here to play; it's here to play and win.

— Alex Scarborough, ESPN.com

Mark Stoops Makes Splash With 2014 Class

Quietly, Kentucky coach Mark Stoops made an emphatic statement with his 2014 recruiting class: The Wildcats aren't going to sit idly by and watch the big boys have all the fun ...

Stoops rubbed shoulders with the SEC's best, signing 28 players, including six ESPN 300 members and eight four-stars. Stoops flipped a Florida State commit and beat out Alabama for a highly coveted defensive tackle. He snagged a top 10 quarterback and filled critical holes on both sides of the ball.

— Edward Aschoff, ESPN.com

Signing Day: The Hot Fad in Recruiting is the Hand-Written Letter

One day last April, Kentucky bombarded Matt Elam, a 340-pound tackle from Elizabethtown, Ky., with 69 letters. It followed up several months later with 182 letters. Not to be outdone, Notre Dame shipped Elam 270 letters in November, a postage play that Fighting Irish recruiters call a "pot of gold."

The outsize attention paid off for Kentucky last week when Elam—who said he received 50 letters on a normal day—chose the Wildcats over not only Notre Dame but also Alabama, which has won three of the last five national titles and is expected to land the nation's top recruiting class this year.

— Ben Cohen, Wall Street Journal

The Big 10's Kentucky Problem

These superlatives of each Big Ten recruiting class and more were discussed on BTN during the network's Football Signing Day special. Left off the table was a matter of frank conversation of how badly programs in the Big Ten, excluding Michigan and Ohio State, were smoked on the recruiting trail by Kentucky of the SEC.

Kentucky's recruiting class would rank as the third best of the Big Ten, two spots behind Michigan for second-best.

— ElevenWarriors.com

CORNERBACKS COACH

DERRICK ANSLEY

Now in his second season as cornerbacks coach at Kentucky, Derrick Ansley will work with a much more experienced group in the 2014 season.

All of Kentucky's cornerbacks return from last season and another year of experience should serve them well. Senior Nate Willis, juniors Fred Tiller and Cody Quinn, along with sophomore J.D. Harmon, have seen significant action at various times in the last two seasons. Adding promising sophomore Jaleel Hytchye and some talented freshmen to the mix will give Ansley significantly more depth and experience than he had a year ago.

Ansley joined the Wildcat staff after a one-year term at Tennessee. In his one season, Ansley helped the Volunteers improve their national ranking in interceptions from 86th to 56th. He came to UT in Feb. 2012 after accepting the position of defensive back coach at Central Florida in Dec. 2011.

Ansley was a defensive graduate assistant coach with Alabama in 2010-11, helping the Crimson Tide to a 22-4 record, including the 2011 national championship season.

Alabama went 10-3 in Ansley's first year en route to a win in the Capital One Bowl over Michigan State. The Tide won the 2011 national championship to finish a 12-1 season.

The Crimson Tide had one of the best defenses in the country both years Ansley was on staff, ranking fifth in total defense, third in scoring defense, sixth in pass efficiency defense and 13th in passing defense in 2010. In 2011,

Alabama led the nation in total defense, scoring defense, passing defense and pass efficiency defense. Ansley also helped tutor Mark Barron, Dre Kirkpatrick and DeQuan Menzie to All-America honors in 2011.

Ansley spent five seasons coaching at NCAA Division III Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala. before taking the graduate assistant position with Alabama. During his five-year stint with the Hawks, Ansley helped guide the team to its first-ever winning season and the school's first playoff appearance.

The Hawks posted a winning record four of the five seasons he was on staff, including two eight-win seasons.

The year before Ansley got to Huntingdon, the team had 12 interceptions and 23 pass breakups. Those numbers improved to 15 interceptions and 44 pass breakups in year one. In Ansley's final season with Huntingdon, the Hawks had 22 interceptions and an impressive 56 pass breakups.

Ansley had a very successful collegiate playing career at Troy University, starting 40 consecutive games for the Trojans. The defensive back had a great junior season in 2003, finishing third in the nation in interceptions with nine pickoffs. He was first-team All-Sun Belt Conference in 2004, Troy's first season in the league. He graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism and was working on his master's in human environmental sciences at Alabama.

Ansley is originally from Tallassee, Ala. Derrick and his wife Alaea have a daughter, Selena.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR, QUARTERBACKS

NEAL BROWN

Neal Brown, in his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kentucky, hopes to accelerate the progress his unit made in 2013.

Known for having offenses post gaudy numbers during his time at Texas Tech and Troy, Brown's first Kentucky offense began a move in the right direction. The Wildcats averaged three more points per game and 26 more yards of total offense per game than they did in 2012.

Brown looks for more improvement in the coming campaign. He saw encouraging signs in the spring, noting that the team's quarterbacks were more consistent and that UK should have more big-play performers than the '13 squad.

Brown's first goal in preseason practice is to decide on a starting quarterback. Sophomore Patrick Towles, redshirt freshman Reese Phillips and true freshman Drew Barker all had times of excellence in spring ball. Junior Maxwell Smith, the team's most experienced quarterback, returns to action in August after sitting out the spring while recovering from injury.

Brown is accustomed to success in moving the ball and scoring points. In each of his three seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Tech, the Red Raiders ranked in the nation's top-seven teams in passing offense, top-15 in total offense and top-25 in scoring offense, having increased production in all three categories each year since 2010. TTU finished the 2012 season second nationally in passing with 355.9 yards per game, 13th in total offense at 495.4 yards per game and 20th in scoring with 37.5 points per game.

The '12 campaign was an expansion of the success from 2011, when Texas Tech ranked 13th nationally in total offense at 470.6 yards per game. The Red Raiders lit the scoreboard at a tune of 33.8 points per contest.

Individually, quarterback Seth Doege put up eye-popping numbers. In 2011, Doege threw for 4,004 yards and 28 touchdowns. He improved to 4,205 yards and 39 TDs as a senior.

In his first season in Lubbock, Brown's offense notched 460.2 yards of total offense per game, 318.9 passing, and scored at a 33.1-point clip as Tech went 8-5 and won the TicketCity Bowl.

Brown's running game has made significant contributions to the attack as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt, including a 5.8 average by Kenny Williams, the leading rusher in 2012.

Prior to Texas Tech, Brown spent four seasons at Troy University, including the last two as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. During his term at Troy, the Trojans won or shared four consecutive Sun Belt Conference championships and earned three bowl invitations.

At the time the youngest offensive coordinator in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, Brown's 2009 offense finished third in the nation in total offense at 485.7 yards per game, fourth in passing at 336.5 yards and 16th in scoring with 33.7 points per contest. In 2008, his first as coordinator, Brown's fast-paced offense set 10 school records.

In addition to the team accomplishments, Brown guided quarterback Levi Brown to the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year award in 2009 and SBC Newcomer of the Year in 2008.

Brown went to Troy after serving one season as wide receivers coach at the University of Delaware, starting three freshman wideouts as the Blue Hens posted a 6-5 record. In 2004, Brown coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Sacred Heart, helping guide the school to a 6-4 record and the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference. In 2003, he was the tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen win a share of the Atlantic-10 championship and a berth in the Division I-AA playoffs.

Brown earned his bachelor's degree in business management and his master's in business administration from Massachusetts, where he played the 2001-02 seasons. He totaled 58 receptions for 721 yards and four touchdowns while being named to the Atlantic-10 All-Academic Team and the NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Directors' Academic All-Star Team.

Born in Louisville, Brown grew up in Bardston before moving to Danville, where he was an all-state wide receiver at Boyle County High School, finishing his career as the No. 2 pass catcher in state history. He played at UK from 1998-2000 and was a two-year letterman, catching 10 passes, including one touchdown. He was a member of the Outback Bowl and Music City Bowl teams and earned a place on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll before transferring to Massachusetts.

Brown is a member of the Boyle County Baseball and Football Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Brooke, have daughters Adalyn and Anslee.

DEFENSIVE LINE

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

An All-Southeastern Conference honoree during his playing days, Kentucky defensive line coach Jimmy Brumbaugh saw three Wildcat linemen follow in his footsteps last season by earning All-SEC accolades.

UK defensive end Alvin "Bud" Dupree was a second-team All-SEC choice by several selectors. On the other end of the line, Za'Darius Smith was a third-team All-SEC pick by CollegeSportsMadness.com. And, tackle Donte Rumph had the best season of his career en route to second-team all-league honors by Athlon Sports.

Rumph and his fellow starter at tackle, Mister Cobble, have signed National Football League contracts but the good news for 2014 is that Dupree and Smith decided to turn down the NFL and return for their senior seasons. Five additional lettermen and several promising newcomers give Brumbaugh plenty of options to develop his group this season.

As a former professional football player, a protégé of legendary defensive line coach Pete Jenkins, and a member of the LSU staff when the Tigers won the 2007 national championship, Brumbaugh has a pedigree of success.

Prior to UK, Brumbaugh's most recent major-college stop was a two-year stint at Syracuse University, where he coached the defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. While with the Orange, Brumbaugh helped guide the team to an 8-5 record his first season and a victory in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl over Kansas State.

SU showed drastic improvements in national defensive rankings in 2010 under Brumbaugh, moving from 81st in scoring defense to 17th and 37th in total defense to seventh. One of the reasons for the defensive improvements was two-time All-Big East defensive end Chandler Jones, who was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009, helping the Bulldogs to an 8-5 record, including a win in the 2008 Independence Bowl over Northern Illinois. Brumbaugh took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

Brumbaugh's line was led by D'Anthony Smith, who was a two-time first-team All-Western Athletic Conference performer. Louisiana Tech earned 27 sacks in 2008, which was the most by a Bulldog team in nearly a decade. Tech also recorded its first shutout since 1996, spanning 148 games.

The native of Keystone Heights, Fla., is not only known for his coaching of defensive fronts, but also his knowledge of strength and conditioning. Brumbaugh served two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU in 2006 and 2007, helping lead the Tigers to the 2007 national championship. While with the Tigers, Brumbaugh helped produce NFL-ready talent, helping 12 players get drafted, including five first-round picks.

Before his stop at LSU, Brumbaugh got his first coaching role at Jacksonville State as a student assistant, guiding the Gamecocks to the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship and a 9-2 record. He spent the 2005 season at Tennessee-Chattanooga as the defensive line coach.

In 2012, Brumbaugh coached at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and the strength and conditioning coordinator. Brumbaugh helped lead the Lions to a top-10 national ranking with an 8-2 record en route to the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line had a solid season, collecting a combined 224 tackles, including 44.5 tackles for loss, 21.5 sacks and seven fumbles forced. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 74.5 rushing yards per game and only 15.3 points per game.

In just one season, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including end Za'Darius Smith at Kentucky. Smith was rated as the nation's No. 1 junior college strong-side defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

During his playing days at Auburn, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, gathering 291 tackles and 15 sacks as a nose tackle and defensive tackle. Brumbaugh was named Freshman All-SEC in 1995, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and first-team All-SEC in 1997. He helped the Tigers earn the 1997 SEC Western Division championship and play in three bowl games, winning two.

After his collegiate career ended, Brumbaugh signed a free-agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 although most of his professional playing career was spent in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

Brumbaugh graduated from Auburn with a degree in health and human performance. He is married to the former Kelly Jones. They have two sons, Legend and Nash.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR, LINEBACKERS

D.J. ELIOT

DJ. Eliot, who played a key role in the dramatic defensive turnaround at Florida State under Mark Stoops, is in his second season as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kentucky.

In his first year with the Blue and White, Eliot culminated the development of Avery Williamson as one of the top linebackers in the Southeastern Conference. Williamson was a first-team All-SEC pick by CollegeSportsMadness.com and a second-team all-league choice by several selectors. He became a fifth-round selection by the Tennessee Titans in the National Football League draft.

Williamson and both starting tackles have departed from last year's team, but a total of eight defensive starters and several experienced reserves should give UK a deeper defensive unit in 2014.

Eliot helped Stoops orchestrate a magnificent revival of the defense at Florida State, where Eliot coached defensive ends from 2010-12. In 2012, he helped lead FSU to one of the best defensive campaigns in school history en route to a 12-2 record, the championship of the Atlantic Coast Conference and a 2013 Orange Bowl victory.

The year before Eliot and Stoops arrived in Tallahassee, the Seminoles ranked 108th in total defense and rushing defense. But in 2012, FSU ranked second nationally in total defense (254.1 yards per game) and sixth in scoring defense (14.7 points per game). FSU also allowed only 3.86 yards per play, leading the nation in that category. In each of Eliot's first two years on the job, FSU ranked among the nation's top 10 teams in sacks and the top 25 in tackles for loss. Eliot's players also had outstanding individual achievements.

• Bjoern Werner had 13 sacks in 2012, leading the ACC and tying for third nationally in total sacks. He was first-team All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He was a first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

• Brandon Jenkins earned All-ACC honors in 2010 and '11 before sustaining a season-ending injury in the 2012 season opener. Despite not playing the remainder of the year, he was still a fifth-round selection in the NFL Draft.

• After Jenkins' injury, Cornellius Carradine went from FSU backup to joining Werner as first-team All-ACC. He had 11 sacks, second in the ACC behind his teammate, and 15th nationally. He went in the second round of the NFL Draft.

• Under Eliot's guidance, Markus White had a breakout season in 2010 and has played two seasons in the NFL.

Werner and Carradine formed the top defensive end tandem in the nation with a combined 24 sacks and 31 total tackles for loss. In 2011, Jenkins, Werner and Carradine combined for 20.5 sacks and 31 TFL while limiting opponents to just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation in that category. In Eliot's first season at FSU, the 'Noles tied for the national lead for most sacks with 48.

Eliot and Stoops first became acquainted at Wyoming, where Stoops coached the defensive backs while Eliot played linebacker. The two coached together at Wyoming as Eliot was a graduate assistant for his alma mater in 1999.

The two continued to work together in 2000 when Stoops joined the staff at the University of Houston as the co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach and Eliot was a graduate assistant. Eliot remained at Houston through 2001 before rejoining Stoops in 2002 at Miami (Fla.) as a grad assistant. The two helped lead the Canes to a 12-1 record and a berth in the Fiesta Bowl.

Eliot earned his first full-time coaching position in 2003 at Texas State. The Bobcats went from a 4-8 record to 5-6 to 11-3 in the 2005 season, which featured a Southland Conference championship and a berth in the semifinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

Eliot helped lead a defensive turnaround at Texas State. In his first season, TSU gave up 34.8 points per game, 394.6 yards per game and 191.3 rushing yards per game. Two years later, the Bobcats gave up only 20.3 points per game, 313.9 yards per game and 136.2 rushing yards per game.

Eliot moved from Texas State to Tulsa, helping lead the Golden Hurricane to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the 2006 Armed Forces Bowl. As linebackers coach, Eliot developed Nick Bunting into the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and all three of his LBs, Bunting, Nelson Coleman and Chris Chamberlain, earned All-CUSA honors. Chamberlain went on to play several years in the NFL.

After Tulsa, Eliot coached three seasons (2007-2009) at Rice as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. His best year at Rice was in 2008 when the Owls went 10-3 and won the Texas Bowl. The season was historic for Rice, serving as the Owls' first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl victory since 1950.

Two of the players Eliot recruited and developed were defensive ends Scott Solomon and Cheta Ozougwu, who led Conference USA linemen in 2009 with 124 combined tackles along with 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks. Both Solomon and Ozougwu became All-CUSA selections and are in the NFL, Solomon with Tampa Bay and Ozougwu with New Orleans.

A native of Edmond, Okla., Eliot graduated from Wyoming with a degree in natural science. He earned a master's degree in education at Houston. He and his wife, Mikel, have one son, Dawson, and two daughters, Drue and Page.

WIDE RECEIVERS

TOMMY MAINORD

Tommy Mainord will work with a deeper, more experienced group of pass catchers in his second season as wide receivers coach at Kentucky.

Mainord has his top five wideouts return from last year with seniors Javess Blue and Demarco Robinson and sophomores Jeff Badet, Alexander Montgomery and Ryan Timmons. With an infusion of talented newcomers as well, Mainord hopes to take another step in developing a top-flight set of receivers.

Mainord brought several years of offensive coaching success to Lexington, including 2010-12 with Texas Tech. In every season in Lubbock, Mainord helped lead TTU to top-10 national rankings in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense. The Red Raiders increased their production in all three categories every season under Mainord, including finishing the 2012 season ranked second in passing offense (355.9 yards per game), 13th in total offense (495.8 ypg) and 20th in scoring offense (37.5 points per game).

Mainord coached two of the best receivers in college football in 2012. Darrin Moore finished 12th nationally in receptions per game with 92 catches for 1,032 yards and 13 touchdowns, while Eric Ward was 19th with 82 catches for 1,053 yards and 12 TDs.

The success in 2012 was spurred off the solid season the Red Raider offense posted in 2011, when TTU finished seventh in passing offense, racking up 4,145 passing yards. Mainord's squad also performed well in his first season, including Lyle Leong, who ranked second nationally with 19 touchdown catches.

Before his stint in Lubbock, Mainord was named the offensive coordinator at Lamar in Sept. 2008 as the Cardinals' program began preparation to return to the field in 2010 after being dormant for more than 20 years.

Mainord had a three-year stint at Sam Houston State in 2005-07, spending three seasons as an assistant coach for wide receivers or running backs. In 2007, SHS ranked 16th in the country in passing offense and 21st in total offense. Following the '07 season, Mainord was promoted to co-offensive coordinator but he departed before the next season began.

Mainord tutored several talented players while with the Bearkats, including D.D. Terry, who rushed for a school-record 1,328 yards to rank seventh in the Football Championship Subdivision and pace the Southland Conference. Terry was honored as the Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year and was one of 16 finalists for the Walter Payton Award, which honors the Division I FCS Offensive Player of the Year.

Mainord cut his teeth in coaching at his alma mater, spending six seasons at Tarleton State. Mainord began his coaching career as a student assistant in 1999, followed by two years as a graduate assistant from 2000-01, helping the team to the Lone Star Conference Championship in '01 with a 10-3 record. The Texans also won the LSC North Division Title in 2002 and 2003.

Tarleton State had a solid offensive season in 2004 while Mainord was coaching quarterbacks and running backs. Derrick Ross, who earned NCAA Division II honorable mention All-America honors and was an NCAA All-Region and All-Lone Star Conference first-team selection. Ross gained 1,560 yards in 10 games for the Texans, which was the best rushing total by an LSC back in 14 seasons.

The Texans also had a great offensive season in 2001, gathering 1,773 yards and scoring 24 touchdowns on the ground en route to a top-10 national ranking and advancing to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

Mainord played baseball at TSU before joining the football program as a student assistant coach. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in health and sports science in 2000 and his master's degree in education in 2001.

Mainord grew up with the game of football as his father, Carlos, was a National Football League coach with Chicago, New Orleans, Carolina and St. Louis and also coached in college at Texas Tech, Miami (Fla.) and Rice.

Mainord and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Maecee, and a son, Davis.

TIGHT ENDS, RECRUITING COORDINATOR

VINCE MARROW

In addition to his contributions as tight ends coach at Kentucky, Vince Marrow has added the responsibility of recruiting coordinator for the Wildcats.

Marrow earned the new designation after a remarkable performance in his first year on the Wildcat recruiting trail.

When bringing Marrow to the staff a year ago, head coach Mark Stoops spoke prophetically -- "His diverse experiences as a coach and NFL player will be invaluable to our players and our program. He also is a great recruiter, especially with his outstanding connections in Ohio."

Marrow played a key role in the effort that landed UK's highest-rated class in the Internet era of recruiting evaluation, including 11 signees who hail from the Buckeye State.

Stoops and Marrow, both from Youngstown, Ohio, knew each other as children before playing football together at Cardinal Mooney High School. Marrow went on to have a successful playing career collegiately and professionally as a tight end before entering the coaching ranks.

Marrow (pronounced the same as in the term "bone marrow") came to UK from Nebraska, where he coached the Cornhuskers' tight ends for two years. In 2012, Marrow helped guide NU's tight ends to a combined 48 catches for 651 yards and five touchdowns, while their blocking ability helped NU rank eighth in the country in rushing offense. Two of Marrow's tight ends, Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed, who ranked fourth and sixth on the team respectively in receiving, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors. The Huskers went 10-4 and played in the Capital One Bowl.

Marrow's knowledge and coaching had an impact on the Nebraska offense as the Cornhuskers ranked 26th in total offense and 28th in scoring offense nationally, an improvement from 44th in total offense and 39th in scoring offense the year before he arrived.

Marrow showed an impact on the Huskers' offense in his first season, helping Nebraska average nearly 30 points per game in 2011, scoring at least two touchdowns in every game throughout the season, a feat that an NU team had accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. The Cornhuskers went 9-4, including a trip to the Capital One Bowl.

Although Marrow's title was graduate assistant in his term at Nebraska, he had an expanded role in the spring of 2012, getting to hit the recruiting trail after Nebraska was granted a waiver from the NCAA to allow Marrow to recruit off campus while associate head coach Barney Cotton was unable to recruit because of surgery. Marrow made an immediate impact on NU's recruiting in Ohio.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Marrow spent six years in the coaching ranks, mostly in professional football with NFL Europe and the United Football League. The year before joining Bo Pelini's staff at NU, Marrow was tight ends coach with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL.

Before serving as the head coach of Holland High School in Springfield, Ohio in 2009, Marrow earned his first collegiate coaching position at his alma mater, Toledo, in 2008. Marrow coached the Rockets' tight ends, helping John Allen and Tom Burzine to finish third and fifth on the team in receiving, respectively.

Marrow began his coaching career in NFL Europe, coaching tackles and tight ends with the Rhein Fire (Düsseldorf, Germany) from 2006-07 before holding the same position with the Berlin Thunder from 2005-06.

Marrow had a professional playing career as a member of NFL rosters on five teams, including Buffalo, Carolina, New York Jets, Chicago and San Francisco. After his NFL days ended, Marrow played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, earning all-league honors with 32 receptions for 345 yards. He also played for the Orlando Rage in the XFL in 2001.

Marrow began his collegiate playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo. Marrow played two seasons at Toledo, earning second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 1991 before being drafted by the Bills in 1992.

Marrow graduated from Toledo with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Dr. Monique Marrow, have five children, Mike, Phylica, Merri-sa, Victoria and Aryanna.

SAFETIES, SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

CRAIG NAIVAR

Craig Naivar, who has been a defensive coordinator or special teams coordinator for the last 15 seasons, has joined the Kentucky football staff as special teams coordinator and safeties coach.

"I've gotten to visit with Craig the last couple of years and am very impressed with him," UK head coach Mark Stoops said. "He has vast knowledge, both as a defensive coordinator and as a special teams coordinator. He's a high-energy coach with a great reputation as a recruiter."

Naivar joined the staff just before the beginning of spring practice and the new coach made an immediate impact. One of the highlights of spring practice was the performance of junior-college transfer A.J. Stamps, who converted from cornerback to safety under Naivar's guidance.

On special teams, all regulars return there with the exception of placekicker.

Naivar (pronounced "NI-ver") comes to Kentucky from Texas State, where he was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach the last three seasons, helping the Bobcats transition from independent status (2011) to the Western Athletic Conference in 2012 to the Sun Belt Conference in 2013. He produced defensive lineman Michael Ebbitt, the 2011 Independent Defensive Player of the Year, along with two All-Independent Team selections. He had two second-team All-WAC honorees in 2012 and a second-team All-Sun Belt pick last season.

Naivar also coached at Texas State from 2004-06, where he was defensive coordinator and safeties coach. That term was highlighted by the 2005 season, when the Bobcats posted an 11-3 record and advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The Bobcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in scoring defense and total defense while generating 33 turnovers.

It was at Texas State where Naivar first became associated with current UK defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot, who also was on the Bobcat staff. The duo moved on to Rice in 2007, where Naivar was co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach from 2007-09. Their best season came in 2008 when Rice went 10-3, the Owls' best record since the 1950s, capped by a share of the Conference USA Western Division championship and a 38-14 rout of Western Michigan in the Texas Bowl.

Individually, Naivar coached safety Andrew Sendejo, currently with the NFL's Minnesota Vikings, and safety Travis Bradshaw, who led the nation in solo tackles in 2009.

Naivar moved to special teams coordinator and defensive line coach in 2010, helping guide Rice to some impressive accomplishments.

Led by All-America punter Kyle Martens, the Owls were sixth in the nation in net punting. Rice ranked 26th in the nation in punt returns and had the nation's 10th-best kickoff returner, Charles Ross, who averaged 29 yards per runback.

Born in Austin, Texas, Naivar was a four-year letterman, playing safety and quarterback, and was team captain at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. He earned bachelor's and master's degrees at Hardin-Simmons and began his coaching career there, helping lead the Cowboys to the NAIA Division II Playoffs in 1994 and '95.

Naivar was a graduate assistant at New Mexico and TCU before landing at Southern Illinois as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach. From there he coached at Sam Houston State, serving at various times as defensive coordinator, special teams coordinator, safeties coach and defensive line coach. The top campaign there was 2001, when the Bearcats went 10-3, were co-champions of the Southland Conference and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs before losing to eventual national champion Montana. Naivar left Sam Houston State for his first stint at Texas State in 2004.

"I'm excited to be part of the Big Blue Nation and such a prestigious university," Naivar said of his decision to come to Kentucky. "I was attracted by the opportunity to work with Coach Stoops, the energy he brings and the success he's had everywhere he's been. "It's also exciting to reunite with Coach Eliot. He is one of the really sharp minds in college football, a great coach and recruiter."

Naivar and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Jordan, and a son, Gunner.

OFFENSIVE LINE

JOHN SCHLARMAN

John Schlarmann, a former All-Southeastern Conference offensive guard at the University of Kentucky, is in his second year as offensive line coach at his alma mater.

Schlarmann turned in a solid performance with a rebuilding line in 2013. Having lost its two best blockers from the previous year, and having only one senior in the forward wall, Kentucky still managed to improve its offensive output by three points per game and 26 yards of total offense per game over the 2012 season.

Looking ahead, Schlarmann returns four starters from last season, and with the addition of several newcomers, has the goal of building a deeper line in 2014. One of the building blocks is center Jon Toth, whom Schlarmann guided to SEC All-Freshman team honors last season.

Schlarmann came to UK from Troy University, where he has coached the offensive line from 2007-12, adding the duty of running game coordinator since 2010. He helped Troy win or share four Sun Belt Conference championships and advance to three bowl games.

Troy has had one of the nation's most productive offenses during Schlarmann's term, ranking among the nation's top 26 in total offense in five of his six seasons at the school. With current UK offensive coordinator Neal Brown in the same role at Troy, the Trojans hit a No. 3 ranking in total offense in 2009 with 485.7 yards per game. Troy averaged 498.8 yards per game in 2012, ranking 13th nationally.

Featuring pass-oriented offenses, the Trojans rated as high as No. 4 in the nation in passing yardage, accomplished in 2009 at 336.5 yards per game. Troy was eighth nationally in passing in 2012 with 331.5 yards per game.

Troy also had complementary running games with Schlarmann, averaging at least 149 yards per game in five of his six seasons, featuring a high mark of 182.6 yards per contest in 2007. All the yardage also has resulted in point production as the team averaged at least 30 points per game in five of his six years.

Individually, Schlarmann coached eight first-team All-Sun Belt selections, including at least one first-teamer each season. Two of his linemen, Dion Small and Tyler Clark, were two-time first-team All-SBC. Another All-SBC lineman, James Brown, went on to the National Football League and currently is a member of the Chicago Bears.

Schlarmann originally came to the University from Highlands High School in Ft. Thomas, Ky., where he was an all-state offensive lineman. He was a four-year starter at Kentucky from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He also was a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1994 and was chosen the team's most outstanding offensive lineman in 1995 and '96. Following his junior season, he was chosen for the "Unsung Hero All-America Team" by the College Football Chronicle.

Also an outstanding student, Schlarmann was a three-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was a finalist for Academic All-America in 1997 after earning a place on the Academic All-District Team. He graduated with a degree in mathematics and later earned his master's in sports management.

Schlarmann entered coaching at Bourbon County High School, coaching the defensive line in 1998 and '99, helping guide the team to the state playoffs both seasons. He returned to UK as a graduate assistant coach from 2000-02, helping with the offensive line all three seasons. He also had sole responsibility of the tight ends in the '02 campaign when the Wildcats completed a 7-5 record.

Schlarmann re-entered the high-school ranks in 2003 as head coach at Campbell County for two seasons. He moved to Newport HS in 2004-05 and had a two-year record of 19-6, including two state playoff appearances and a district title. The best season was 2005, when Newport went 11-2 and reached the state playoff quarterfinals before losing to the eventual state champion. He was named District Coach of the Year in 2005 by the Kentucky Football Coaches Association.

Schlarmann is married to the former Lee Anne Federspiel, daughter of former UK linebacker Joe Federspiel. They have three sons, Joseph, Benjamin and Matthew.

RUNNING BACKS, RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR

CHAD SCOTT

Kentucky running backs coach Chad Scott has added the responsibility of running game coordinator as he enters his second season on the Wildcat coaching staff.

Scott works closely with offensive coordinator Neal Brown in the development of the rushing attack. The duo understand each other well, having coached together for seven years at Troy, Texas Tech and now at UK.

Under the guidance of Scott, the running back position has become perhaps the deepest spot on the team. The group features the team's leading rusher from last season, Jojo Kemp, along with Josh Clemons, who looked good in the spring after missing two years because of injury, and Nebraska transfer Braylon Heard. True freshmen Mikel Horton and Stanley "Boom" Williams add more talent to the mix.

Himself a former running back at Kentucky, Scott has ventured back to the Bluegrass after spending 2010-12 at Texas Tech. While TTU was known for great success throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked 115th in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to 75th nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and has spent two years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers both sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each.

Overall, Texas Tech won the TicketCity Bowl over Northwestern following the 2010 season and defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2012.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked 66th in rushing offense and 77th in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to 35th nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and 16th in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked third in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris ranked second in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards and plays for the Green Bay Packers. In Scott's last season at Troy he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, to Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

In his six seasons at Troy and Texas Tech, Scott's teams averaged 34.1 points per game.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Scott enrolled at Kentucky in 2000, rushing for 611 yards as a true freshman en route to All-SEC Freshman Team honors and third-team Freshman All-America honors. Scott's sophomore season with UK was limited because of injury and he transferred to North Carolina to complete his collegiate career.

With the Tar Heels, Scott rushed for 182 yards as a junior. In a solid senior campaign, Scott ranked seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing with 796 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with Cleveland, Pittsburgh and the New York Giants before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

Scott graduated from UNC with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky, and the couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACHES

DAN CARREL

Graduate Assistant/Defense

Dan Carrel enters his first season at Kentucky as a graduate assistant for the defense.

Carrel comes to Kentucky after one season as the offensive line intern at Ohio State University.

While at OSU, he assisted the offensive line coach/co-offensive coordinator with weekly game plan installation, scouting reports and game preparation, helping the Buckeyes advance to the Big Ten Championship game and the 2014 Discover Orange Bowl. Prior to OSU, he served as a strength and conditioning intern at South Carolina before taking a defensive graduate assistant position at his alma mater, West Liberty University, in West Liberty, W.Va. With the Hilltoppers, he worked specifically with the linebackers and special team units.

The Flushing, Ohio native was a two-year letterman for West Liberty as a linebacker, helping win the 2009 West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship. He also excelled in the classroom as he was a four-time member of the WVIAC Commissioner's Honor Roll, graduating magna cum laude with a degree in health and physical education.

Carrel is currently working on his master's degree in sport leadership at UK.

MAX DRISKO

Graduate Assistant/Offense

Max Drisko, in his second season on the Kentucky staff, is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach for the offense.

Drisko moves into a graduate assistant coaching role after serving as a graduate assistant manager last season. Before coming to Kentucky, he worked as a student assistant coach at Texas Tech from 2010-13 under UK offensive coordinator Neal Brown. While at Tech, he also worked closely with UK assistant coaches Chad

Scott and Tommy Mainord and was hands-on in helping the Red Raiders become one of the best offensive teams in the country. TTU ranked sixth nationally in passing in 2010 and seventh in 2011 and won three straight bowl games while Drisko was a part of the staff.

Originally from Raleigh, N.C., Drisko is a former spread offense quarterback at Middle Creek High School in Apex, N.C. He chose to attend Texas Tech to further his knowledge in the spread offense with hopes of pursuing a career in coaching.

Drisko graduated from Texas Tech in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He is currently working on his master's degree in kinesiology and health promotion.

JOSH PRUITT

Graduate Assistant/Offense

Former Kilgore Junior College assistant head coach Josh Pruitt is in his second season on the UK coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the offense.

Pruitt ran the offense at Kilgore that saw 2013 transfer Steven Borden, head coach Mark Stoops' first signee at Kentucky, catch 11 passes for 181 yards and four touchdowns as a sophomore. Pruitt also coached Division I signee Ed'Marques Batties to All-America and first-team all-conference honors.

Under Pruitt's tutelage, Kilgore went 8-3 in 2012 and earned an invitation to the inaugural Brazos Valley Bowl at Kyle Field in College Station, Texas. Four of his offensive players went on to earn all-conference awards that season.

Pruitt played for two seasons at Garden City (Kan.) Community College before transferring to Troy. He was a member of the 2006 Sun Belt championship and the 2006 New Orleans Bowl championship team.

After his playing days, Pruitt moved into a graduate assistant role for the Trojans. Pruitt helped coach the 2009 squad that ranked third nationally in total offense, fourth in passing and 16th in scoring. Troy went on to win four conference championships and appear in the 2008 New Orleans Bowl and 2009 GMAC Bowl.

Before Kilgore, Pruitt had coaching stints at Catholic University in Washington D.C. and East Mississippi Junior College in Scooba, Miss.

Pruitt, a native of Ellsworth, Kan., received his undergraduate degree in criminal justice and a master's degree in criminal law, both from Troy.

SAM SIMPSON

Graduate Assistant/Defense

Former Kentucky center Sam Simpson enters his third season on the UK football staff, his first as a graduate assistant coach. He will work specifically with the Wildcat defensive line. In 2012 he served as a student assistant coach and was a video analyst last season while also helping with recruiting.

After redshirting his freshman season, Simpson played two years at UK before his career ended because of injury. He was named the Offensive Scout Team Player of the Week for the Akron game in 2010 and was the team's Most Valuable Offensive Scout Team Player during his 2009 redshirt season. He also was a 2011 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll member and active in community service.

Simpson, a native of Lexington, Ky., played for his father and former Wildcat Sam Simpson at Henry Clay High School, where he was among the nation's top center prospects. He was a first-team all-state selection as a senior by the Louisville Courier-Journal and second-team all-state by The Associated Press. He also was named to the Lexington Herald-Leader Class of the Commonwealth list of the top-22 seniors in the state.

Simpson received his bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in communications from UK in 2012 and is currently working on a master's degree in business administration.

HIGH PERFORMANCE STAFF

ERIK KOREM

High Performance Coach

After spending the last decade developing some of the best athletes in the world – from football All-Americans to Olympic medalists – Erik Korem is in his second season with the University of Kentucky football program as its high performance coach, overseeing all aspects of performance: physical, mental, technical, tactical and intellectual development.

Korem works closely with strength and conditioning coach Corey Edmond, director of sports sciences Chris Ronald, nutritionist Monica Fowler and all of UK football's support staff on player development. Under Korem and his staff's direction, UK football players have seen positive changes to not only their on-field ability and strength, but off-the-field training and conditioning habits that will have an immediate impact on the student-athletes and strengthen their lives beyond football as well.

The Dallas, Texas, native has traveled abroad where the application of sports science is both more widespread and advanced to help develop Kentucky's High Performance program. Korem and his staff use the latest in athlete-tracking technology to help student-athletes reach and enhance their potential, while the program also educates players on sports psychology principles and how to apply them to help manage in-game stress and decision-making processes.

Korem's impressive resume includes work with some of the best athletes in the world, including world-class track and field sprinters and Olympic medalists. Korem served as a speed development consultant during the 2008 Olympic year.

Prior to joining UK's staff, Korem spent three seasons at Florida State University, where he started as the speed and nutrition specialist for the football program before being elevated to the director of sport science and football operations. While with the Seminoles, FSU had three very successful seasons on the field, winning a bowl game all three seasons and finishing with one of the best defensive units in the nation.

Before joining FSU's staff, Korem spent time at Mississippi State as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and as a professor in the Exercise Science Department. Korem also served as the director of athletic performance at the University of the Pacific and was the head strength and conditioning coach at Fort Valley State University.

Korem graduated with a bachelor's degree in applied exercise physiology from Texas A&M University in 2003 before serving as an intern and graduate assistant from 2004-06 at the University of Arkansas, where he completed his master's degree in exercise science.

Korem and his wife, Hayle Lynn, have a son, Cooper Jet.

COREY EDMOND

Strength and Conditioning Coach

With over 20 years of experience in college football, including six years at Arizona with University of Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops, Corey Edmond is entering his second season as the head strength and conditioning coach with the UK football program.

Edmond joined the Kentucky staff in 2013 with a great pedigree and outstanding credentials on improving player development. The native of Sussex, Va., has served directly in player development for the last 18 years, including a stop at perennial national power Oklahoma as the assistant director of performance enhancement. While at OU, Edmond helped the Sooners win a national championship in 2000 and finish as the national runners-up in 2003. Edmond most recently spent one season at his alma mater, North Carolina State, as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to his year at N.C. State, Edmond spent eight successful years at Arizona under Mike Stoops, Mark's older brother, starting as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004 before being promoted to director of performance enhancement in 2005. In 2010, Edmond was named associate athletics director.

Edmond was named a semifinalist for strength and conditioning coach of the year in 2009 by footballscoop.com, while the Wildcats went to three bowl games during his tenure with 19 players selected in the NFL Draft.

Edmond started coaching in 1994 at Tennessee-Chattanooga as an outside linebacker/defensive end coach for three seasons before serving as head strength coach from 1996-99. Before his time at UTC, Edmond had a successful playing career with N.C. State from 1987-90, playing in multiple bowl games. He signed a free-agent deal with the Houston Oilers in 1991, staying with the organization for two seasons before returning to N.C. State to finish his degree in 1993.

Edmond and his wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Leah, and a son, Darren.

CHRIS RONALD

Director of Sports Sciences

After spending time as a strength and conditioning coach both collegiately and in the National Football League with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Chris Ronald is entering his second season with the Kentucky football program as its director of sports sciences.

Ronald, who is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, works closely with high performance coach

Erik Korem and strength and conditioning coach Corey Edmond to maximize player development.

Ronald came to Kentucky after spending a year as a strength and conditioning coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. While with the Jaguars, Ronald assisted with the implementation of the competition period of training and rehabilitation program, while also setting up, executing and collecting data for the Catapult GPS tracking system.

Before his time in the NFL, Ronald worked in collegiate athletics at several different universities as a strength and conditioning coach. Ronald started coaching at the University of South Florida, where he served as an intern strength and conditioning coach for USF's nationally ranked football program.

After a short stint with USF, Ronald spent two years as a graduate assistant coach at Marshall University, where he handled nearly all Olympic sports while completing his master's degree in sports administration in 2010. Ronald then coached at three universities in 2011, including short stints with Detroit-Mercy and Memphis, before serving as a football strength and conditioning coach at North Texas during the 2011 season. While at North Texas, Ronald assisted the director of football performance in designing and implementing the strength and conditioning program for the Mean Green.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

The native of Guelph, Ontario, earned his bachelor's of science in recreation and leisure studies with honors from Brock University in St. Catharines, Ontario in 2007.

DONALD HORTON

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Former Arizona football standout Donald Horton is in his second season at Kentucky as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Horton came to the Bluegrass in 2013 after serving one year as an assistant strength coach for the football program at North Carolina State. Before that, he spent three years at his alma mater, where he served as an assistant strength coach, working with football, women's basketball, women's soccer and baseball. He also stepped in to be the assistant interim defensive line coach for the Wildcats' 2010 Alamo Bowl appearance.

Horton was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at defensive tackle for head coach Mike Stoops at Arizona. He played on the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl championship team and was a member of the 2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl squad, where he was chosen as the keynote speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes bowl breakfast. He also was a nominee for the Pac-10 Sportsmanship Award in 2010 and for the NCAA Leadership Conference in 2007.

Horton is married to former Arizona volleyball standout, Tiffany Owens, of San Bernardino, Calif.

RAFAEL HORTON

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Rafael Horton enters his second season with the Kentucky football program as a member of Erik Korem's high performance staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Before Kentucky, Horton spent the last five years at Fort Valley State University in Fort Valley, Ga. He started at Fort Valley in 2006 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, as well as the linebackers coach, before being promoted to the strength and conditioning coordinator a year later. As head of the department, he was responsible for supervising the strength and conditioning staff for all 11 varsity sports and cheerleading. He also was the university's fitness instructor, developing fitness programs to help promote a healthier lifestyle for students, faculty and staff members.

In 2011, he created his own company, Grindtime Fitness and Performance, in which he provides personal training services. He has trained several professional athletes, including NFL players Jason Thompson (Green Bay Packers), Marquette King (Oakland Raiders), Dionte Dinkins (St. Louis Rams), Ricardo Lockette (San Francisco 49ers), Narda Williams (Detroit Lions) and Darnell Burks (New York Giants).

Horton has certifications with the United States Association of Weightlifting in sports performance, the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a performance enhancement specialist and the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

The Barnesville, Ga., native received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Fort Valley State and his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania.

MONICA FOWLER

Registered Dietitian

Monica Fowler is in her third season at Kentucky as the Wildcats' registered dietitian. She is responsible for the nutritional aspects of all 22 athletic teams at UK, which includes nutritional counseling and assessments, meal planning and maintaining nutritional supplements.

Prior to working with the Development of Nutrition Department at UK, she served as a clinical dietitian from 2010-12 for RD Associates of Kentucky.

In 2009, Fowler developed a color coding program called "Connect the Dots" which helps local elementary students choose balanced, nutritious meals. This system has now been implemented in every elementary school in Fayette County.

The "Dots" program which consists of dairy/milk (blue), breads/grains (orange), meat/protein alternative (purple), vegetables (green) and fruits (red), relies on the USDA's MyPlate model, which color-codes the food groups and illustrates proper portion sizes. Students continue to have the freedom to make their own selections; the "offer vs. serve" provision in Fayette County Public Schools allows young customers to choose a helping from three, four or all five food groups.

Fowler, originally of Leitchfield, Ky., has volunteered numerous hours to the Lexington community since arriving in 1980. She has served as the president of the Bluegrass Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, chaired the planning committee for the Phi Upsilon Omicron Honor Society Biennial Convention and served on the board of directors for the Living Arts and Science Center. She also was president of the Maxwell Elementary Parent Teacher Association for two years.

Fowler earned her bachelor's degree in dietetics in 2010 and a master's degree in hospitality and dietetics administration from UK in 2012. She became a certified specialist in sports dietetics in 2013.

Fowler is a member of several professional organizations, including Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Bluegrass Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, College of Professional Sports Dietitians Association, Kentucky Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Sports, Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition and School Nutrition Association.

She and her husband Shane have two children, a son Satchel and a daughter Rebecca.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

GABE AMPONSAH

Senior Athletic Trainer

Gabe Amponsah enters his sixth season as senior athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky. He works primarily with the Wildcat football team, including the evaluation and treatment of injuries, along with the development and implementation of rehabilitation protocols.

Amponsah, who was a graduate assistant with the Kentucky athletic training staff in 2006 and 2007, returned to UK after spending a year at Florida State, working with the Seminole's football team.

Before graduating from UK with a master's degree in athletic training in May 2008, Amponsah completed his undergraduate studies in the same discipline at Duquesne University. He also served as an athletic training intern for the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Amponsah is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

DANIEL BEREZOWITZ

Director of Football Recruiting Operations

Dan Berezowitz enters his second year at Kentucky as the director of football recruiting operations.

In this role, he manages all aspects of recruiting administration for the football program, including managing the recruiting staff, coordinating recruit visits and handling all aspects of on-campus recruiting.

In his first season as director of recruiting, Kentucky's 2014 recruiting class was ranked in the top 20 by multiple recruiting publications and considered one of the best recruiting classes in UK football history.

Prior to Kentucky, Berezowitz spent six seasons at Arizona with Mike Stoops, including the last four as the recruiting coordinator. He played a key role in helping Arizona garner consecutive Top-20 recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006. Berezowitz managed all aspects of the football recruiting process and worked with operations in regard to compliance issues in recruiting and other office responsibilities.

In 2007, he left Arizona to become the recruiting coordinator at the University of Minnesota, where he helped the Gophers bring in the nation's 14th-best recruiting class in 2008.

He also worked under head coach Mack Brown at both North Carolina and Texas, serving as the Tar Heels' director of video operations and football center director from 1994-97 and the director of football operations at Texas from 1998-99.

Berezowitz, originally from Whitewater, Wisc., was a four-year letterman at quarterback for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in athletic administration in 1994. He coached at UW-Whitewater as an assistant from 1992-94.

Overall, Berezowitz has 21 years of experience in college athletics and has been a part of seven bowl games, including North Carolina at the 1994 Sun Bowl, the 1995 Carquest Bowl, and the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls; with Texas at the 1998 Cotton Bowl; and the 2008 and 2009 Insight Bowls at Minnesota.

Berezowitz and his wife, Jane, have four sons, twins Bryan and Brayden, Zachary, Jordan and a daughter, Alexa Grace.

FRANK BUFFANO

Director of Football Operations

Having spent a majority of his coaching career with current UK head coach Mark Stoops, including working directly under Stoops at Arizona for five seasons, Frank Buffano has again teamed up with the UK head coach as he enters his second season as the director of football operations at Kentucky.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and a graduate of Cardinal Mooney High School along with Stoops and tight ends coach Vince Marrow, Buffano already has a relationship with much of UK's football staff. He assists Coach Stoops in all daily football operations and administrative duties.

Prior to UK, Buffano served as an assistant coach at Youngstown State, coaching linebackers in 2012 and 2011 after serving as the secondary coach in 2010. During his time with the Penguins, YSU defeated its first-ever BCS opponent while he led multiple players to all-conference honors. One of his players, cornerback Brandian Ross, went on to the National Football League and is in his third season with the Oakland Raiders. Buffano also recruited tight end Will Shaw, who has completed his career at YSU and signed a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to his stint at YSU, Buffano spent five seasons with Stoops at Arizona, serving as a defensive graduate assistant coach his last two seasons after three years of working as a video graduate assistant with the Wildcats. During his time with UA, Buffano helped Stoops with all aspects of Arizona's defense, including breaking down game film and developing weekly game plans.

While in high school, Buffano was a member of Cardinal Mooney's state championship team in 1987. He attended Youngstown State in the early 1990s while helping coach at Cardinal Mooney from 1990-96 and was in private business in Ohio and Florida before joining the Arizona program. Buffano graduated with a bachelor's degree in geography and regional development from Arizona in 2006.

Frank and his wife, Kelley, have three daughters, Isabella, Gabriella and Olivia Leigh.

JON DENIO

Director of Equipment Operations

Jon Denio is in his fourth year at Kentucky as the director of equipment operations for Kentucky athletics. He came to the Bluegrass after serving seven years as an assistant director of equipment at the University of Oklahoma.

As the director of equipment operations for UK, Denio handles the management of UK's Nike account, working directly with each coaching staff in UK's 22-sport intercollegiate athletics program. He also oversees the department's inventory control software system as well as contract purchasing any athletic equipment needed by the athletic department.

In his seven years at OU, the native of Mexico, Mo., served as the men's basketball equipment director as well as the liaison to the Lloyd Noble Center for both the men's and women's basketball teams. He started at OU in 2004 as a graduate assistant equipment manager, working with the football, softball and wrestling programs.

Prior to OU, Denio worked two seasons as an assistant equipment manager for the Washington Redskins, in charge of on-field setup and maintenance, and player footwear. He also spent four years as a student equipment manager working with the football team at his alma mater, the University of Missouri.

Denio spent the 1999 and 2000 summers as a college intern with the New York Jets equipment department and was responsible for setting up practice, prepping for travel and handling laundry.

Denio earned a degree from Missouri in economics, personal finance and sociology in 2002. He is married to the former Brooke Holt of Fremont, Neb.

JOSH ESTES-WAUGH

Assistant Director of Recruiting Operations

Josh Estes-Waugh enters his sixth season overall with the Kentucky football program, his first as the assistant director of recruiting. He will assist director of football recruiting operations Dan Berezowitz with all areas of recruiting.

Estes-Waugh is very familiar with the UK football program as he spent three years as a student manager for the Wildcats from 2009-11. Along with managerial duties, he served as student assistant coach for the wide receivers and provided game preparation and film breakdown for the defensive coaches.

He moved into a graduate assistant/video analyst role for special teams in 2012, helping develop game plans and scouting reports for the Wildcats and then in 2013, was named the offensive analyst under offensive coordinator Neal Brown. Under Brown, Estes-Waugh assisted with opponent breakdown, developed recruiting boards and charted offensive play goals.

The Paris, Ky., native attended Paris High School where he was a three-sport standout in football, baseball and basketball.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Kentucky in economics in 2012 and is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership.

SHANE FANNIN

Director of Sports Video

Shane Fannin is in his sixth year at the University of Kentucky as the director of sports video.

Prior to joining the UK team in 2007, Fannin owned and operated Digital Blue, a video production business. He also spent time as a member of WKYT-TV in Lexington.

Fannin graduated from Morehead State University with a major in communications and a minor in marketing/ public relations. A native of Morehead, Ky., he is married to Ganan Fannin. The couple has three children, Clay, Cali and Ciah. Clay, who received the prestigious Presidential Scholarship, will be attending UK in the fall.

CHRISTIAN FIERO

Sports Video Production Coordinator

Christian Fiero is in his first year as the football video coordinator at Kentucky.

He comes to the Bluegrass with over seven years of experience, four of which came in the sports video department at Florida State. For three years he served as the assistant director of video operations and football video coordinator and in 2013 was voted the Atlantic Coast Conference Co-Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers. Before being promoted to assistant director, he was the coaches video assistant at FSU from 2010-11, and prior to moving to Tallahassee, Fla., was the sports video graduate assistant at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., for two seasons.

The Midway, Ky., native, received his bachelor's degree in broadcasting and electronic media in 2008 from Eastern Kentucky and was a student football video coordinator for Colonels during the 2007-08 season.

Fiero is an active member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

GREG GORHAM

Sports Video Production Coordinator

Greg Gorham is in his fourth year as a member of the University of Kentucky staff as the sports video production coordinator.

Prior to joining UK in 2011, Gorham was the founder/owner of KSN Media, a video production business, located in Lexington, Ky. He also produced projects for PGA of America, CBS Sports, Lexmark and co-produced the award-winning "Inside Kentucky Basketball: All-Access" before the 2008-09 season for the Big Blue Sports Network.

From 2004-08, Gorham lived in Washington, D.C. where he served as a feature editor for the nationally syndicated "George Michael Sports Machine" while also editing "The Joe Gibbs Show."

Prior to moving to Washington, Gorham spent three years as a sports photographer/producer at WKYT-TV and 10 years in the same position at WLEX-TV in Lexington.

Gorham is a native of Nashville, Tenn., where he attended Father Ryan High School. He is married to the former Chelsea Wells and they have two daughters, Harper and Iris.

TYLER HANCOCK

Graduate Assistant/Video Analyst

Tyler Hancock enters his third season at Kentucky, his first as a graduate assistant/video analyst.

Hancock will work primarily with special teams. He spent the last two seasons as defensive quality control and a recruiting assistant for the Wildcats as he worked with the defensive coaches, broke down opponent and self-scout film and organized daily meeting review tapes. He also assisted in on-campus recruiting and built defensive recruiting boards.

Prior to UK, he served as the quarterbacks coach and co-passing game coordinator at Kentucky Wesleyan College and was the assistant quarterbacks coach for one season at his high school alma mater, Lexington Catholic. He played quarterback for the Knights and was a member of the 2005 state championship team. Hancock earned all-district honors as a senior and holds several school passing records.

Hancock, a Lexington, Ky., native, graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan in 2012 with a degree in communications and is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership from UK.

MARC HILL

Executive Associate Director of Athletics

Marc Hill is in his 16th year at the University of Kentucky and in his fourth year in his current role as executive associate director of athletics.

Hill serves as the primary sport administrator for the UK football program, overseeing day-to-day operations and budget, assisting the coaching and support staff and functioning as the liaison between the program and the UK Athletics Department.

In addition, Hill oversees the internal operations of UK Athletics, including business and accounting, human resources, event and facility operations, capital projects, sports turf, sport equipment operations and strength and conditioning programs.

Hill also is working with the $120 million renovation of Commonwealth Stadium and the planning and construction of the new $45 million football practice/office complex. Previously, he helped oversee the development of three new facilities, the John Cropp Softball Stadium, the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex and the UK Golf House.

Prior to his current role, Hill spent two years as the sport administrator for UK baseball, including the 2012 campaign that was the most successful season in the history of the team.

Hill arrived at Kentucky in 1999, spending 11 years as director of strength and conditioning for all of UK's 22 sports, including direct supervision of football. During his term as a strength coach, Hill helped UK advance to five bowl games, including three victories. In Hill's final eight seasons working as the director of strength and conditioning, a Kentucky player was named to the All-America Strength Team by the National Strength Coaches Association.

Hill came to UK from the University of Arizona, where he worked from 1995-99 as the strength coach for the men's basketball and baseball teams and assistant strength coach in football. During Hill's time in Tucson, Arizona went to three bowl games, and as strength coach for the men's basketball team, he worked with the 1997 national championship team. He also was a graduate assistant coach in the 1994-95 school year and has completed his master's degree.

Hill is a native of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He went on to Iowa Wesleyan College, where he was a four-year starter at linebacker from 1990-93.

Hill and his wife, Jenny, have sons Dalton and Cogan and a daughter, Brooke. Jenny, a former athlete at the University of Arizona, was the 1996 national player of the year in college softball.

TOM KALINOWSKI

Equipment Manager

Tom Kalinowski enters his 37th year as equipment manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named head football equipment manager in 1978.

Kalinowski is a Certified Equipment Manager as designed by the American Equipment Managers Association. He has served on advisory boards for two equipment manufacturing companies, Shutt and Bike.

He graduated from Xavier High School in Middletown in 1974. He was the student manager there for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian and Cody.

JIM MADALENO

Director of Sports Medicine/
Head Athletic Trainer Football

Jim Madaleno enters his 10th year as director of sports medicine at Kentucky, his 18th year as the head athletic trainer for the Wildcats' football team.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as assistant athletics director for sports medicine. Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic training education program that has been accredited nationally.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at Michigan State University, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in the department of movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletics trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant athletics trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children, Kiley Ann and Ryan James.

In the fall of 2012, he served as a graduate assistant for marketing at NSU, helping execute the athletic department's marketing plan for football, men's basketball, women's basketball and women's soccer.

Prior to NSU, Papas spent three years as an assistant football coach at Central Academy in his hometown of Macon, Miss., helping coach the junior high and high school offensive and defensive lines and special teams.

Papas graduated from Mississippi State in 2009 with a degree in communications before receiving his master's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in sport administration in 2014 from Northwestern State. He is currently working on a second degree in sport leadership from UK.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

JOE SCOLA

Director of Player Development

Joe Scola is in his second season with the Kentucky football program as the director of player development.

Prior to Kentucky, he spent three seasons at Florida State University as a graduate assistant coach and quality control assistant.

Scola worked closely with current UK head coach Mark Stoops at FSU, helping Stoops develop the Seminole defense into one of the best in the nation. FSU finished the 2011 season ranked fourth nationally in defense en route to defeating Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl, while in 2012 FSU finished second overall in total defense, first in pass defense, claimed the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and defeated Northern Illinois in the Orange Bowl.

Scola, who started at FSU in 2010 as a quality control assistant, began his career in 2007 on the football staff at his alma mater, Dartmouth College, where he spent three years as an assistant coach. Scola coached safeties in 2007 and linebackers and specialists the final two seasons, helping Dartmouth punter Brian Scullin to All-America honors. Scola was a two-year letterwinner at Dartmouth as a free safety.

A native of Punta Gorda, Fla., Scola earned a bachelor of arts in sociology in 2007 from Dartmouth after a successful high school playing career at Charlotte High School in Punta Gorda. Scola was a team captain in high school, leading the team to a 13-1 record his senior season and a top-20 national ranking en route to earning all-state honors.

While at FSU, Scola completed his master's degree in sports management.

Did not throw during the spring as he recovered from offseason shoulder surgery ... Expected to resume throwing during the summer and be ready for practice in August ... Has been a part-time starter at quarterback over the last three seasons but has battled various injury issues ... Can receive a medical hardship for the 2012 season, so he has two years of eligibility remaining ... Has shown good field presence and accuracy ... Originally signed with Kentucky in the spring of 2010 ... UK's signing class was full, so he agreed to grayshirt until January 2011 ... Has played in 21 games, starting 11.

2013 (Sophomore): Led UK in passing with 1,276 yards and nine touchdowns ... Great game vs. Miami (Ohio) going 15-for-23 for 310 yards and three touchdowns, including an 88-yard touchdown pass, which is the fourth longest in UK history ... Threw for 254 yards and two touchdowns against Tennessee ... Threw only one interception in 183 pass attempts, breaking the SEC record for lowest ratio of interceptions in a season; however, the record also was surpassed by Connor Shaw of South Carolina, who had an even better mark of one pickoff in 284 attempts ... Played in nine games with four starts.

2012 (Sophomore): Started in all four games he played ... Completed 103 of 150 passes (68.7 percent) for 975 yards and eight touchdowns ... Played in three full games, averaging 322 yards in those contests ... Best outing came in the win over Kent State when he hit 30 of 39 for a career-best 354 yards and four TDs, winning a pair of weekly awards for that performance (see above) ... Completed a career-high 37 passes vs. WKU ... Incurred an ankle injury on the first series against South Carolina and missed the remainder of the season.

2011 (Freshman): Named to the Freshman All-SEC team by league coaches and Rivals.com ... Played in eight games, starting three late in the season ... Won his first collegiate start by guiding UK to a 30-10 win over Ole Miss, a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter ... Completed 19 of 36 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns, earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors in the process ... The 283 yards set a school record for most passing yards by a true freshman ... Threw at least one TD pass in each of his three starts ... Finished the season completing 84-of-153 passes for 819 yards and four TDs.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

2013 GAME RECAPS

1 WKU 35, KENTUCKY 26 AUG. 31, 2013 / LP FIELD, NASHVILLE, TENN.

Western Kentucky got ahead early and withstood a fourth-quarter Kentucky rally as the Hilltoppers won the season opener – UK's first game under new coach Mark Stoops – by a tally of 35-26.

The teams traded scores in the first half and WKU went into halftime with a 21-17 lead. WKU tallied three 3-yard touchdown runs while the Wildcats got a 22-yard field goal by Joe Mansour, a 19-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jalen Whitlow and a five-yard TD by running back Jonathan George. The Hilltoppers increased the advantage to 35-17 early in the fourth quarter before the Wildcats rallied.

Quarterback Maxwell Smith entered the game and directed a pair of scoring drives, ending with a 30-yard Mansour field goal and a 34-yard touchdown pass to Demarco Robinson, but it was not enough as WKU held on to win.

Kentucky had good balance on offense, with more than 200 yards rushing and passing, the first time the Wildcats had done both in the same game since the 2010 season. As the starting QB, Whitlow completed 10 of 15 passes for 78 yards and also rushed for a career-high 75 yards and a touchdown. Smith completed 8 of 13 for 125 yards and a TD. Raymond Sanders led the ground game with 98 rushing yards.

Senior linebacker Avery Williamson led the Kentucky defense with 14 tackles, the ninth double-figure game of his career. He also had a fumble recovery, one of two fumbles recovered by the Cats. Linebacker Khalid Henderson had a career-high 10 tackles and caused a fumble.

Wide receiver Demarco Robinson turned in a fine all-around performance. He led UK in receiving with five catches for 69 yards, including a 34-yard TD, and also provided spark on special teams with two punt returns for 54 yards and a 24.7 average on kickoff returns.

2 KENTUCKY 41, MIAMI (OHIO) 7 SEPT. 7, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky scored a school-record 24 points in the first quarter and never looked back in a dominating 41-7 win over Miami (Ohio), which gave Mark Stoops his first win as a head coach.

Maxwell Smith, who made his first start since Sept. 2012, threw three long touchdown passes and Jalen Whitlow and Raymond Sanders each added scoring runs as Kentucky amassed 675 yards on the day, the program's third-most total offensive output in school history, and the most in 15 years.

Both Smith and Whitlow took plenty of snaps on the day, often rotating in and out of the game multiple times in the same possession during a first quarter in which the UK offense scored the first five times it took the field.

Whitlow capped a 7-play, 61-yard opening drive with a 9-yard rushing touchdown before Joe Mansour concluded UK's second possession with a 22-yard field goal. Jonathan George caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Smith to make it 17-0 early and return the air raid sirens to Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky's defense dominated the first interval, holding Miami to two three-and-outs from the RedHawks' first three possessions, but a Kentucky muffed punt resulted in a Miami fumble return for a touchdown, the visitors' only score of the afternoon. UK quickly responded with touchdowns on the next two possessions, an 88-yard bomb from Smith to junior transfer wideout Javess Blue and a 5-yard scamper from Raymond Sanders, respectively.

After a scoreless third quarter Kentucky added 10 points in the fourth, a 21-yard Mansour field goal and another long pass from Smith, this time 56 yards to freshman wide receiver Jeff Badet.

Kentucky's defense enjoyed a banner day for D.J. Eliot's unit as a whole, recording six sacks – including three by Za'Darius Smith – and limiting Miami to just 1-of-16 on third-down. The UK defense allowed no scores on the day while holding Miami to only 122 yards of total offense.

3 #7/7 LOUISVILLE 27, KENTUCKY 13 SEPT. 14, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

The Kentucky defense got off to an impressive start holding seventh-ranked Louisville's high-powered offense to just 82 first-quarter yards, but three Wildcat turnovers were too much to overcome as UK fell 27-13 in front of 65,445 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

Both teams traded field goals in the first quarter as dropped passes plagued the UK offense through the game's first few drives. Louisville put together an 11-play, 52-yard drive that ended with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Teddy Bridgewater to DeVante Parker at the end of the first half to take a 10-3 lead into the break.

Senorise Perry opened the second-half with a 1-yard touchdown run, and he added a 36-yarder early in the fourth on the other side of a John Wallace 21-yard field goal to round out Louisville's second-half scoring.

Kentucky scored 10 fourth-quarter points as Joe Mansour kicked his second field goal of the game before Alex Montgomery caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Jalen Whitlow to cap a 15-play, 75-yard drive midway through the final interval.

Avery Williamson continued his strong senior season with a game-high 15 tackles, while Alvin "Bud" Dupree and TraVaughn Paschal added eight stops each including a half sack shared between Dupree and Za'Darius Smith.

Kentucky rushed for 162 yards on 31 carries, averaging 5.2 per attempt. Freshman Jojo Kemp ran five times for a career-high 80 yards, leading UK in rushing for the second straight game.

Both of UK's quarterbacks, Maxwell Smith who started and Jalen Whitlow who played for most of the second half, passed for at least 100 yards each for the second-consecutive contest.

4 #20/19 FLORIDA 24, KENTUCKY 7 SEPT. 28, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

The No. 20 Florida Gators used a stout defensive performance and a ball-control offense to overcome the home Wildcats 24-7 in Commonwealth Stadium.

Entering the game second in the nation in total defense, Florida limited UK to 173 offensive yards. Meanwhile, the Gators controlled the clock by rushing for 246 yards and piling up 22 first downs.

Florida opened the game with a 7-play, 93-yard touchdown drive capped by a 2-yard scamper by Matt Jones, but Kentucky answered on its first possession of the game.

Having covered 50 yards in nine plays to start the game, the UK drive stalled at Florida's 25-yard line. Kentucky's field goal unit came onto the field with UK facing 4th-and-9, but holder Jared Leet flipped the ball over his head to kicker Joe Mansour, who took the ball down the right sideline for Kentucky's lone touchdown of the game.

Florida broke the tie with two touchdowns before the end of the first half. Trey Burton caught a 9-yard touchdown from quarterback Tyler Murphy, capping a 79-yard drive highlighted by Jones' 67-yard run two plays earlier. Murphy then completed a nine-play, 62-yard drive with a 5-yard touchdown rush to give Florida a 21-7 lead. Murphy finished the day completing 15 of 18 passes for 156 yards while Jones carried the ball 28 times for 176 yards.

Florida concluded the scoring with an Austin Hardin field goal to finish a 14-play, 64-yard drive midway into the fourth.

Avery Williamson paced Kentucky with seven tackles. Nate Willis had a career day with seven tackles including two for loss. Alvin "Bud" Dupree also had seven tackles, including a sack. Linebacker Josh Forrest made the first interception of his career.

5 #13/12 SOUTH CAROLINA 35, KENTUCKY 28 OCT. 5, 2013 / COLUMBIA, S.C.

Trailing South Carolina 27-7 in the fourth quarter, Kentucky rallied with three touchdowns but the Wildcats' comeback bid came up just short in a 35-28 loss in UK's first SEC road game of 2013.

South Carolina scored touchdowns on each of its first three possessions of the game to take an early 21-point lead. UK answered on its third possession with a 14-play, 74-yard drive that took 6:42 off the clock and ended in a Raymond Sanders' 2-yard touchdown run before the Gamecocks added a field goal just before halftime.

South Carolina kicker Elliott Fry made another field goal to cap South Carolina's first drive of the second half before UK started its comeback. Jalen Whitlow led UK 75 yards in 12 plays on the next drive, which he finished on a 4-yard touchdown connection to Demarco Robinson.

Kentucky's Malcolm McDuffen forced a South Carolina fumble on the ensuing kickoff return, which Dyshawn Mobley recovered at the SC 35-yard line. Five plays later Whitlow found freshman Ryan Timmons for his first career TD catch to bring UK within a score of the lead at 27-21.

South Carolina answered on its next possession as senior quarterback Connor Shaw led his team 89 yards in 7 plays to extend the Gamecocks' lead to 35-21. Whitlow continued to excel on UK's final drive, which he finished with a 1-yard sneak for a touchdown to make it 35-28, but South Carolina was able to run the clock out after recovering an onside kick attempt with 4:03 remaining.

Whitlow saw all the snaps at quarterback for the first time this season, finishing 17-of-24 passing for 178 yards and two touchdowns, while rushing 17 times for 69 yards and a score. UK's defense totaled three sacks, one by Alvin "Bud" Dupree – who had at least one sack for the fourth straight game – and one each by freshmen Blake McClain and Jason Hatcher.

6 #1/1 ALABAMA 48, KENTUCKY 7 OCT. 12, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky kept it close early, forcing a punt and recovering two timely fumbles inside its own red zone on Alabama's first three possessions to keep the score 0-0 through the first quarter, but the top-ranked Crimson Tide eventually proved too much as UK fell to the two-time defending national champions 48-7.

The loss closed out Kentucky's most grueling stretch in school history, a schedule of four straight Associated Press top-20 teams including No. 7 Louisville, No. 19 Florida and No. 13 South Carolina and the nation's No. 1 team, which has won three of the past four national championships.

After beginning the game with a punt and two lost fumbles on its first three possessions respectively, Alabama scored on its fourth drive with a Cade Foster 25-yard field goal, which kickstarted 24 second-quarter points as Kenyan Drake sandwiched 1-yard touchdown runs around T.J. Yeldon's 24-yard TD run. The Alabama offense continued its strong play in the third as Yeldon scored his second rushing touchdown on Alabama's first possession of the second half.

Maxwell Smith connected with Javess Blue for a 30-yard touchdown on the ensuing possession to get UK on the scoreboard. The TD was the first an opponent scored on the Alabama defense in four games.

Alabama got another field goal late in the third quarter before McCarron threw his first TD of the evening early in the fourth, and Altee Tenpenny closed the scoring with a 7-yard rushing score with 1:41 to go.

Kentucky senior linebacker Avery Williamson finished with a game-high 13 tackles, marking his 11th career game with double-digit tackles, and extending a streak of 25 consecutive games with at least three tackles. Sophomore cornerback Fred Tiller recovered the first fumble, and forced the second of Alabama's two first-quarter fumbles.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 28, KENTUCKY 22 OCT. 24, 2013 / STARKVILLE, MISS.

Kentucky mounted a valiant second-half comeback from an 11-point halftime deficit, which came up just short with the UK offense reaching Mississippi State's 29-yard line before turning the ball over on downs during the final seconds of a 28-22 away loss.

After forcing a punt on UK's first drive, Mississippi State scored touchdowns on its first two possessions. Bulldogs' quarterback Dak Prescott's first touchdown pass was a 60-yarder to Malcolm Johnson before Jameon Lewis completed a 6-play, 75-yard, 2:36 drive with a 19-yard rush. The Bulldogs' first two scores came on each end of Kentucky's first score of the night, a 51-yard screen pass from Maxwell Smith to Ryan Timmons, which tied the game at 7.

Mississippi State made it 21-7 midway through the second quarter with 17-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to Lewis. UK got points on the board late in the first half, as a late drive put the Wildcats in range for a 45-yard Joe Mansour field goal with 31 seconds remaining.

Kentucky pulled to 21-19 in the third quarter as a Jojo Kemp 14-yard touchdown run came after a Wildcats' safety when the Mississippi State punter mishandled the long snap in his own end zone. Following Kemp's first-career touchdown, the Wildcats recovered an onside kick, but it was disallowed because of an offside penalty. Mississippi State took advantage of the ensuing good field position, with a halfback pass from Lewis to Prescott resulting in a touchdown and a 28-19 lead.

Mansour made a 44-yard field goal with 8:15 remaining to pull the Wildcats to 28-22, but the Wildcats could not complete the comeback attempt. Kentucky's final drive was stopped at Mississippi State's 29 when UK's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. Wildcat running back Raymond Sanders nearly broke away for a touchdown on what turned out to be a 6-yard run to convert a 4th-and-1 earlier in the drive.

Sanders led all rushers with 15 carries for 86 yards while Smith threw for 160 yards. Prescott paced the Bulldogs by completing 23 of 34 passes for 268 yards and two TDs. UK defensive end Bud Dupree, despite playing with an injured pectoral muscle, led all tacklers with a career-high 13 stops, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback sack.

KENTUCKY 48, ALABAMA STATE 14 NOV. 2, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

Jalen Whitlow returned as Kentucky's starting quarterback in style, running for two touchdowns and throwing another two TDs in Kentucky's 48-14 Homecoming game victory over Alabama State.

Whitlow opened the scoring with an 88-yard TD dash on the second play of the game, as the run tied for the second-longest rush in school history and was the longest run in the 41-year history of Commonwealth Stadium. He finished with 101 yards on the ground to become UK's first 100-yard rusher in a game this season.

The two teams exchanged punts on the ensuing two possessions before Alabama State responded on the back of running back Isiah Crowell, who finished an impressive drive with a 32-yard rushing TD.

But the Kentucky defense hunkered down from there, and Kentucky found the end zone the next three times it had the ball. Demarco Robinson recovered a Raymond Sanders' fumble in the end zone to put the Wildcats up 14-7. Whitlow hit Alexander Montgomery for a 6-yard TD pass and then Jojo Kemp capitalized on excellent field position off a blocked punt by Josh Forrest with a 7-yard scoring scamper.

Joe Mansour extended UK's lead to 31-7 at halftime as he made from 39 yards out as the clock expired before the break. He made another field goal from 29, before Whitlow had a rushing TD and a pass TD to Steven Borden to take UK to 48 points by the end of the third quarter.

Kentucky's 48 points was the most in a game since 2010 and the offense set a school record with its fourth-consecutive game without a turnover. The Wildcat defense recovered two fumbles and limited the visitors to 297 total yards.

#9/9 MISSOURI 48, KENTUCKY 17
NOV. 9, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

Jalen Whitlow tied a career high with 225 passing yards, but Maty Mauk also had a career day by throwing five touchdowns, four of them to Dorial Green-Beckham, in No. 9 Missouri's 48-17 win at Kentucky.

Kentucky forced Missouri to punt on the game's opening possession, and proceeded to move the ball 76 yards, in a drive which resulted in a Joe Mansour 21-yard field goal to give UK an early 3-0 lead. Kentucky would not score again in the first half, while the No. 9-ranked Tigers got hot and found the end zone on each of its final four possessions of the half.

Kentucky responded nicely to open the second half, as Whitlow's 1-yard TD capped a 13-play, 73-yard drive which took 5:31 off the clock. Raymond Sanders' 1-yard TD run brought the Wildcats within 35-17 late in the third quarter, but the Tigers tacked on two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to finish the scoring at 48-17.

Whitlow finished the day by completing 17 of 27 passes for 225 yards and added 44 net rushing yards. Sanders had more than 100 yards from the line of scrimmage as he rushed for 34 yards and also caught four passes for 70 yards. Freshman nickelback Blake McClain paced the Wildcats' defensive effort with seven tackles while linebacker TraVaughn Paschal had five stops, including a career-high three tackles for loss.

For Missouri, Mauk completed 17 of 28 for 203 yards and five TDs, with Green-Beckham snagging seven balls for 100 yards and four scores. Henry Josey ran for 113 yards and two TDs, including an 86-yard run.

VANDERBILT 22, KENTUCKY 6
NOV. 16, 2013 / NASHVILLE, KY.

Kentucky started strong, forcing a punt on the game's first possession and following with a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive which was capped by a Jojo Kemp 2-yard run. From there, Vanderbilt had the better of a defense-dominated 22-6 win over UK.

After Kemp's touchdown, Vanderbilt blocked the extra-point kick and returned it into the end zone for two points to make the score line 6-2 in favor of UK.

UK dominated most offensive statistical categories throughout the first three quarters, but the Wildcats had four turnovers and were unable to get points on the scoreboard once they reached Vanderbilt territory.

The Commodores scored the only other points of the first half on a Brian Kimbrow 21-yard run late in the opening quarter. The second half remained a defensive struggle until the fourth quarter, when Vanderbilt got two field goals from Carey Spear and Kris Kentera caught a 13-yard pass from Patton Robinette with 47 seconds remaining.

The Kentucky defense turned in one of its better performances of the season, limiting Vanderbilt to 14 first downs and 313 total yards, the lowest figures this season against a conference opponent. The 22 points scored by Vanderbilt were the fewest by the Commodores in 16 games.

Defensive tackle Donte Rumph led the defensive effort with a career-high 10 tackles, including one for loss. End Bud Dupree had six stops, including 1.5 quarterback sacks and linebacker Avery Williamson's six tackles featured two for loss.

11 GEORGIA 59, KENTUCKY 17 NOV. 23, 2013 / ATHENS, GA.

Kentucky fell behind early and could never overcome the initial hole as Georgia won on its Senior Day 59-17 in a game which saw both team's starting quarterbacks forced to leave the game because of injury.

The Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first three possessions as Georgia was ahead 21-0 by the middle of the first quarter. The Wildcat offense got on the board with a 69-yard touchdown run from Dyshawn Mobley, who made the first start of his career, late in the first. Mobley finished the game with a career-high 92 yards on 10 carries.

Georgia answered with a 9-play, 79-yard drive which ended in an 8-yard TD from Aaron Murray to Arthur Lynch. UK was forced to punt on its ensuing possession, but Georgia fumbled the punt, and the Wildcats were able to turn the good field position into a Joe Mansour field goal.

Murray threw for 183 yards and four touchdowns but was forced to leave the game because of a knee injury. UK starting QB Jalen Whitlow exited on the second series of the game after incurring a shoulder stinger. Maxwell Smith subbed for Whitlow, throwing for 149 yards and a touchdown.

Georgia added a touchdown shortly before halftime to make it 35-10 going into the third quarter. Smith, who directed Kentucky's three scoring drives, put the final score on the board with a 30-yard TD pass to Javess Blue in the fourth quarter. Blue led UK's receivers with five catches for 93 yards.

The Kentucky defense got career-high tackle totals from defensive back Blake McClain (12 tackles), safety Ashely Lowery (10) and end Za'Darius Smith (nine).

12 TENNESSEE 27, KENTUCKY 14 NOV. 30, 2013 / LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky got career-best performances from senior defensive lineman Donte Rumph, who had 10 tackles with a forced fumble, and sophomore running back Dyshawn Mobley, who rushed for 143 yards, but Tennessee was still able to overcome UK 27-14 in the 2013 finale for both teams.

Tennessee struck early with a Rajion Neal 60-yard touchdown run just 24 seconds into the game. Tennessee quarterback Joshua Dobbs accounted for two more touchdowns in the first half: a 43-yard TD pass to Jason Croom and a 40-yard run.

Kentucky was able to get on the board late in the second quarter as Anthony Kendrick caught his first career touchdown, a 19-yarder from Maxwell Smith, who started in place of a hobbled Jalen Whitlow. The first half came to a close with Tennessee leading 20-7.

Dobbs added to Tennessee's lead with another touchdown pass, this time to Devrin Young with 3:14 remaining in the third, before Javess Blue caught his team-leading fourth touchdown pass of the season, for 14 yards from Smith, to set the final score at 27-14.

On Senior Night, linebacker Avery Williamson totaled six tackles to finish his final season at UK with 102 total tackles. Williamson totaled 100+ tackles for the second consecutive season, and finished his college career just four stops short of 300.

Mobley's 143 yards were the most by a UK player in a 2013 game, and the output was the most for a Wildcat in an SEC game since Derrick Locke ran for 170 yards in a 2010 win over Vanderbilt.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Larry Warford; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Mark Stoops; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967, and in 1969 Wilbur Hackett became the first African-American captain for any SEC team. Then, in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 123 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,218 contests. UK football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 15 bowls.

UK football has had 15 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 24 first-team All-Americans (selected 28 times), 14 Academic All-Americans (selected 17 times), 74 first-team All-SEC players (selected 100 times), and 540 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK. Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., and beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1 and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

ond-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK

Coach Bear Bryant (left inset) guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53. Other legendary UK football names include Art Still, who earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977 and All-America quarterback Tim Couch (right inset), who led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. The highlight of Curry's term came in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the sec-record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606. The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-to-back bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU

-- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Kentucky capped the 2008 season with a win over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

The momentum continued with a school-record streak of five-straight bowl games. Coach Rich Brooks retired following the 2009 campaign, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips. Sparked by All-America receiver Randall Cobb, Phillips became the first head coach in UK history to take the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season. Another highlight of Phillips' term was ending the 26-year losing streak vs. Tennessee with a 10-7 win over the Volunteers in 2011.

A new era of Kentucky football began in 2013 with the hiring of Mark Stoops as head coach. Stoops' staff is making a huge impact in recruiting and fans responded with a large increase in attendance in the new coach's first season.

WILDCAT TRADITIONS & LEGENDS

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 123 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins

Rich Brooks led the Wildcats to an unprecedented four consecutive bowl appearances and three bowl victories during his seven-year tenure (2003-09) as UK's head coach.

Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

RICH BROOKS

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to post-season play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight bowls following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant, one of the greatest coaches in college football history, spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

UK CHEERLEADERS 20-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 20th national cheerleading championship in 2014 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06, 2008-10, 2012 and 2014. They have been the runners-up on six occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93, '94 and 2010, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGIUO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2014 winner of the scholarship is manager Michael Burchett.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

GOALPOSTS

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 48-20 record in those 68 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R.

In 1965, Nat Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MASCOTS

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 academic year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, dancing and entertaining thousands of UK fans at Commonwealth Stadium and Rupp Arena during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

In the past, UK has had a live wildcat mascot that has resided in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60. The most recent live mascot was named "Blue." Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one -- the Sagarin ratings -- named Kentucky (11-1).

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October -- football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:15 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

NATE NORTINGTON

Nate Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Northington, who was known as "Nat" during his playing days, has written an autobiography, Still Running, that was published in 2014.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

THE PRINCE OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice is the unofficial historian when it comes to Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID, then

KENTUCKY FIGHT SONG

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)

Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times come a-knocking at the door,

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, The Wildcats, which details Kentucky football and its history. At his retirement party, Rice was given a lifetime "Press Pass" to Commonwealth Stadium.

Since his retirement from UK, Rice has written a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and he continues to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office. He was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.

STOLL FIELD/MCLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had “fought like wildcats.” The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

WINNING STREAK

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

KENTUCKY SUPERFAN JIM BROWN

If it has to do with Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

When the 95-year-old Brown began attending UK football games, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

With one exception we'll get to later, Brown was present for every UK home football game from 1938 until his streak ended during the 2009 season -- a total of 412 home games.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he enrolled as a UK freshman. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year."

World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he didn't miss a home game for 64 straight seasons.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America -- literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Caroline Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1914-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington but all the while he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington,'" Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'"

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Caroline passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

"We're going in the right direction with the new AD (Mitch Barnhart) ... The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown's streak finally came to an end when an illness forced him to miss the Alabama game in 2009. However, he continues to go Kentucky games. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He had a 47-year streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

KENTUCKY BOWL SUMMARIES

1947 • GREAT LAKES BOWL // KENTUCKY 24, VILLANOVA 14

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback/kicker George Blanda gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

1950 • ORANGE BOWL // SANTA CLARA 21, KENTUCKY 13

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a 1-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

Mike Martin was the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the 1976 Peach Bowl when the Wildcats shut out North Carolina.

1951 • SUGAR BOWL // KENTUCKY 13, OKLAHOMA 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 in New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his handoffs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the score. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a 5-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another Oklahoma scoring threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952 • COTTON BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 in Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8-of-20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a 5-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a 3-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976 • PEACH BOWL // KENTUCKY 21, NORTH CAROLINA 0

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the postseason bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the three TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold UNC to just over 100 yards.

1983 • HALL OF FAME BOWL // WEST VIRGINIA 20, KENTUCKY 16

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

WVU scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the Mountaineers' 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1984 • HALL OF FAME BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, WISCONSIN 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK sealed the victory.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

1993 • PEACH BOWL // CLEMSON 14. KENTUCKY 13

The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson 2-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonso Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a 2-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive. Kentucky was stopped again at the 1-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a 5-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

1999 • OUTBACK BOWL // PENN STATE 26. KENTUCKY 14

Playing on New Year's Day for the first time in 47 years, the Kentucky Wildcats jumped out to an early lead, but the Penn State Nittany Lions rallied for a 26-14 victory in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla.

Although the game was played in Tampa, the Wildcats certainly felt at home. Heavy ticket demand gave the Outback Bowl its first sellout ever, as more than 40,000 UK fans were packed among the 66,005 patrons in Raymond James Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter. At the PSU 36-yard line, under heavy pressure, quarterback Tim Couch lofted a rainbow into the end zone that wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught for a touchdown.

Later in the opening period, UK stretched the lead to 14-3 with a 64-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard TD pass from Couch to halfback Anthony White. Key plays on the drive included a 22-yard pass from Couch to wide receiver Kevin Coleman and a 30-yard aerial to Mickelsen.

From the second quarter, however, Penn State chipped away. Quarterback Kevin Thompson hit flanker Joe Nastasi with a 56-yard touchdown bomb. A second field goal from Travis Forney narrowed the UK advantage to 14-13 at halftime.

The Nittany Lions took the lead for good in the third quarter on two more field goals by Forney, giving him four on the day. Penn State put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard end-around TD run by Chafie Fields.

Meanwhile, the PSU defense shut out the Wildcats the last three quarters. Kentucky continued to move the ball, but three scoring opportunities came up empty - one on an interception, one on a missed field goal, and the other when the Wildcats were held on downs.

Kentucky actually outgained Penn State, 441 yards to 420. UK might have done even better, but the Wildcats offensive line was missing three senior starters, all of whom were replaced by freshmen.

Couch paced the attack by completing 30-of-48 passes for 336 yards and two TDs, completing his streak of at least 300 passing yards and at least one TD pass in every game of the season. Running backs Anthony White and Derek Homer caught seven balls each. White totaled 101 yards on the day, with eight rushes for 61 yards and seven receptions for 40 yards.

1999 • HOMEPOINT.COM MUSIC CITY BOWL // SYRACUSE 20, KENTUCKY 13

Playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 1983-84, the Kentucky Wildcats went down to the wire before falling to Syracuse, 20-13, in the HomePoint.com Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. Kentucky played before a heavily partisan crowd, as almost all of the 59,221 fans were pulling for the Wildcats.

Kentucky blazed to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and maneuvered 79 yards for a touchdown. Tight end James Whalen set up the TD with a 45-yard reception and Kendrick Shanklin ran it in from the 3-yard line.

The Wildcats held on defense, forcing a punt. Quarterback Dusty Bonner again drove the Wildcats inside the 10-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Marc Samuel. Whalen, however, was injured during the series and was lost for the remainder of the game. Already having caught four passes for 79 yards midway through the first quarter, his presence was sorely missed.

The Kentucky defense continued to stop Syracuse, including two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal, but the Orangemen got on the board late in the second quarter. The Wildcats led at halftime, 10-7.

A scoreless third quarter led to a dramatic final stanza. Samuel extended the UK lead to 13-7 with a 35-yard field goal. Syracuse countered with two scoring runs by James Mungro, taking a 20-13 lead.

Kentucky got its last chance by taking over on its own 4-yard line with only 1:35 remaining and no timeouts. Bonner did a great job of moving the team to the Syracuse 41-yard line, but ran out of time, and a desperation heave on the game's final play fell incomplete.

Bonner led the UK attack by completing 30 of 43 passes for 308 yards and he also ran for 16 yards. In his final game as a Wildcat, running back Anthony White

Dennis Johnson (56) blocked this Syracuse field goal attempt. Later in the game, Jamal White (47) also blocked a field goal attempt.

Kendrick Shanklin bulled his way into the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown run.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

2006 • GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // KENTUCKY 28, CLEMSON 20

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw for 299 yards with three touchdowns and the Wildcats won their first bowl game in 22 years with a 28-20 victory over Clemson in front of a record 68,024 fans at the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 20-of-28 passes and finished the season with 31 touchdown strikes, joining Tim Couch as the only Wildcats in school history to reach 30 TD tosses in a season. Woodson directed an offense that gave the Wildcats their sixth bowl win in school history by setting a UK record for most points scored in a bowl game.

Kentucky, making its first postseason appearance since 1999, used some offensive wrinkles to score its first-half points. The Wildcats quickly got on the board with a one-yard run by Micah Johnson less than four minutes into the game. Johnson, normally a linebacker, was called upon in the short-yardage situation and the 270-pounder bulldozed his way into the end zone for his first collegiate score.

The Wildcat defense gave ground early, but Clemson stayed off the scoreboard after a pair of missed field goals. The Tigers finally tallied and came within one, 7-6, after a 32-yard pass by quarterback Will Proctor to Durrell Barry in the second quarter.

From there, both teams combined for four turnovers on the next seven plays, but UK closed the half with another surprise maneuver. Facing fourth down and four yards to go from his own 20-yard line, Wildcat punter

Tim Masthay faked a punt and completed a 10-yard pass to Marcus McClinton for the first down. On the next play, Woodson followed with a 70-yard bomb to receiver DeMoreo Ford to go into the locker room up 14-6.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense stiffened, stopping the Tigers on six consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters. The Wildcat offense took advantage, making it 21-6 early in the second half after a Clemson fumble. Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons Jr. on a short sideline pass and Lyons took it the rest of the way for a 24-yard score. UK built its lead to 28-6 with a touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Tamme with 11:29 remaining in the game.

Trading yardage for time, Kentucky gave up a pair of clock-eating scoring drives and clinched the victory when Tamme recovered an onside kick with less than a minute to go. That set off a wild celebration among the Wildcats and the 50,000-plus UK fans who packed LP Field.

2007 • GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // KENTUCKY 35, FLORIDA STATE 28

It was a case of "Deja Blue" as Kentucky defeated perennial national power Florida State, 35-28, in the 2007 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

For the second consecutive year, the Wildcats claimed the Music City Bowl championship, quarterback Andre' Woodson won the Most Valuable Player Award and a heavily blue-tinted record sellout crowd of 68,661 packed LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson capped his UK career in fine fashion, completing 32 of 50 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. And, as was typical of the season, a variety of players contributed to UK tallying its most points ever in a bowl game.

Versatile tailback Rafael Little had one of his best games as a Wildcat, rushing for 152 yards while catching eight passes for 50 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Steve Johnson caught seven balls for 124 yards and two TDs. Not expected to participate because of a knee injury, determined wideout Keenan Burton played anyway and also snagged seven passes. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard checked in with his usual solid performance, a game-high 15 tackles.

Kentucky struck quickly and never trailed. Safety Roger Williams blocked a punt on the first possession of the game and tight end Jacob Tamme got the Wildcats on the board with a 14-yard touchdown catch. However, a fumble near the FSU goal line and a missed field goal ruined other UK scoring chances and the teams were tied at 14 apiece at halftime.

Like the year before, Kentucky took control in the third quarter. Woodson directed a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives, with Little scoring on a two-yard pass reception and tailback Tony Dixon running it home from four yards away.

Andre' Woodson was the Music City Bowl Most Valuable Player for the second-consecutive year.

UK made the score 35-21 in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard pass to Johnson, but just like the previous year, the opponent rallied late. FSU drove for a touchdown, got the ball back and was able to throw a bomb to the end zone on the game's final play, but cornerback David Jones knocked down the pass to preserve the victory.

The win marked some big milestones for the Kentucky football program. This was the first time since the 1950 and '51 seasons that the Wildcats notched bowl victories in consecutive years. It was the first time since 1976-77 that UK won eight games in back-to-back seasons.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

2009 • AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL // KENTUCKY 25, EAST CAROLINA 19

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm – knocking an eardrum out of Pinkney's helmet – and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lying in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own one-yard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock.

Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

2009 • GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // CLEMSON 21. KENTUCKY 13

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

Kentucky got on the board on its first possession of the game. True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 yards.

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Coach Rich Brooks concluded his career by taking Kentucky to a school-record four-straight bowl games.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

2010 • BBVA COMPASS BOWL // PITTSBURGH 27, KENTUCKY 10

In what would eventually be his final game as a Kentucky Wildcat, UK All-American Randall Cobb earned a game-high 204 all-purpose yards, breaking the Southeastern Conference single-season record as Kentucky fell 27-10 to Big East tri-champion Pittsburgh in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

The bowl appearance was the school-record fifth consecutive for the Wildcats, who have now appeared in postseason play a total of 15 times with an 8-7 record. The bowl appearance for head coach Joker Phillips marked the first time in school history that a UK coach has gone to a bowl game in his first season on the job.

Kentucky entered the game with new faces on the coaching staff and at quarterback as co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter coached his first game with the Wildcats, while sophomore Morgan Newton gained his first start of the season at quarterback after the suspension of senior Mike Hartline.

Minter's defense performed well in the game, limiting Pittsburgh to 96 passing yards on just nine completions while Randall Burden grabbed a key interception in the first quarter. Danny Trevathan led UK in tackles with 14, while Winston Guy had eight tackles, a tackle-for-loss and a pass breakup.

On the offensive side, Newton was 21-for-36 for 211 yards, while senior Derrick Locke paced UK in rushing and receiving with 12 rushes for 71 yards and six receptions for 61 yards. Cobb ended his UK career with three rushes for 23 yards and five catches for 62 yards.

The game started with Pittsburgh receiving the ball and marching 53 yards down the field before Tino Sunseri was picked off by Burden to swing momentum to the Wildcats. After Newton completed three consecutive passes and Locke had a brilliant 28-yard rush into Pitt territory, the Wildcats made their only turnover of the game and fumbled the ball. The Panthers then went three and out and on the ensuing position, Craig McIntosh drilled a 50-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their lone lead of the game 3-0.

Pittsburgh took the lead late in the second quarter 6-3 after Dan Hutchins hit back-to-back field goals from 21 and 33 yards. The Panthers scored their first touchdown late in the quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Sunseri to go up 13-3 at halftime.

The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the half, Sunseri hit Brock DeCicco for a touchdown to give the Panthers their biggest lead of the game at 20-3.

The Wildcats put together a good drive later in the quarter. Newton guided the Cats 74 yards on 14 plays, capped when senior fullback Moncell Allen bulldozed in from one-yard out to cut the lead to 20-10. Pittsburgh tacked on its final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

SEE MOE GO FOR 429 YARDS

Moe Williams enjoyed the greatest day ever by a UK running back on September 23, 1995, in the Wildcats' 35-30 win at South Carolina ... Williams compiled 429 all-purpose yards (299 rushing, 57 receiving, 73 kickoff returns) — the second highest total in NCAA history ... Williams set three SEC records and broke or tied five school records ... He was named National Player of the Week by the National Football Foundation and National Offensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated.

TEAM RECORDS

UK UPSETS No. 1 OLE MISS BEHIND KESTNER

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

BISHOP'S THEFT GIVES UK VICTORY

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium is undergoing a $120 million renovation that is expected to be complete in time for the 2015 season.

The renovation includes a new look for the exterior of the stadium (see inside front cover of the media guide), along with redesigned concourses, new concession stands and restrooms, additional suites, new loges boxes, two new club areas, a new press box a new recruiting room and upgraded team support facilities.

Commonwealth Stadium has had several upgrades over the years and the most recent change was in 2011 as new video boards were installed in each end zone of the stadium. The two boards, each measuring 39 by 79 feet, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability to the stadium. Installed by Daktronics, the project cost approximately $6 million dollars. Along with the video boards, a "ribbon board" was installed around the upper deck of the stadium, adding more information and enjoyment to the fan experience.

In addition to the new video and ribbon boards, other changes in recent years include a new locker room for the Wildcats, a new playing surface and state-of-the-art drainage system, plus numerous concourse and seating area improvements.

Commonwealth Stadium is undergoing a $120 million renovation in time for the 2015 season.

Kentucky football, which is now in its 42nd season as the lair of the Wildcats. When constructed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium had a capacity of 57,800 and was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats. Since its opening, Kentucky has played 263 games in the friendly confines, including a 138-121-4 (.532) record.

The playing area was named C.M. Newton Field, in honor of the former UK director of athletics, in 2001.

The stadium was expanded in 1999. Both end zones were enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The project was handled by HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., and Turner Construction of Cincinnati, Ohio. A total of $27.6 million was allocated for the expansion, which also included the original Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards, new scoreboards and additional restrooms and concession stands. Last year's attendance capacity was 67,942 but will be less this year as construction has eliminated an undetermined number of seats.

Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 63,408 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 25 teams in attendance for 11 seasons. Every single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.

Media facilities at the stadium begin with the enclosed press box, situated between the lower and upper decks of the stadium, which offers perhaps the closest media view of any major college stadium in the country. Included in the press box are a television broadcast booth, two radio broadcast booths, coaches booths, instant replay facility and three VIP booths. A spacious photo deck, featuring space for videographers and two auxiliary broadcast booths, is located in front of the press box. There is also a field-level room to service photographers, located in the same tunnel that the visiting team enters and exits the field.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

DID YOU KNOW ...

- UK Libraries is among the world's leading research libraries, and boasts among the largest book endowment of all public universities in the United States.
- The UK Chandler Medical Center, established in 1957, is one of the nation's finest academic medical centers. Through its state-of-the-art patient care facility and emergency rooms, advanced biomedical and biological research, and a network of affiliate health care agencies, UK Healthcare has strategically developed an incredible capacity to serve the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
- UK has a vibrant fine arts program and is a cultural hub for arts engagement in the Commonwealth. UK professor Frank X Walker was recently named Kentucky Poet Laureate. As poet laureate, Walker will promote the arts and lead the state in literary endeavors through readings and public presentations at meetings, seminars, conferences and events.
- UK Athletics continues to be a leader beyond the field of play. UK Athletics provided $3 million to the university this past year in support of non-athletic, academic scholarships, as well as $65 million toward a new Academic Science Building.
- UK alumni see success too. A shining example of that success is Matt Cutts (A&S and Engineering 1995), a native of Morehead, Ky., who is one of Google's first 100 employees ever and was on the ground floor of what is today the world's largest search engine.
- UK students enjoy a great range of academic choices, with approximately 200 majors available in 16 academic colleges supported by a comprehensive library system.
- UK is one of only eight public institutions in the United States with colleges of agriculture, engineering, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.
- UK has a diverse student body with enrolled students representing every Kentucky county, all 50 states and more than 100 countries around the world.
- In the last five years, UK earned nearly 100 national rankings for excellence in teaching, research and service. Overall, UK has 28 programs ranked among the top 10 in their discipline.
- UK was the nation's first university to raise a billion dollars in its first-ever capital campaign, making it the 31st American university – both public and private – that successfully completed campaigns of more than $1 billion.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

OPEN UP A WORLD OF PROMISE

For nearly 150 years, the University of Kentucky has served the people of the Commonwealth and our region through ground-breaking research, community outreach, intellectually rigorous education and technological advances that contribute to the betterment of the Commonwealth while also fostering a cultural quality of life through our museums, libraries and special events.

What does that commitment mean to you?

It means from day one on our campus you can study with faculty who are the world's experts in their fields. You can walk 10 minutes in any direction and work with a world-class clinician, chemist, historian, poet, engineer, business leader, and others. With more than 200 majors, 17 academic colleges and a comprehensive library system, we are poised to provide you with a global experience of learning and discovery to help you reach your dreams.

And we've recently re-designed the core courses every student takes – UK Core – with you and your needs in mind. These courses will challenge you to think, to write, to produce content and acquire skills that will prepare you for careers and experiences when you graduate.

While on campus, we've embarked on a mission to build thousands of modern residence hall beds – living spaces where you can build a community with students who share your passions and interests. Alongside this priority is an investment in our academic and student life spaces, including: the Gatton College of Business, a new Academic Science Building, an expanded Student Center, Commonwealth Stadium, the School of Art and Visual Studies, and the College of Law.

Together, you can explore interests that include more than 500 clubs and organizations, whether your passion is politics or public service, Habitat for Humanity or foreign languages. Or, if your passions lie off campus, you can participate in a growing range of travel and education abroad options. We understand your campus home can be here in Lexington or in Paris, England or India.

Learning takes place where your creative fires are sparked and where your studies match your passions. That's our promise to you. It's as relevant as it was nearly 150 years ago. And we honor that promise by helping you reach your potential.

We invite you to come see blue with us!

A ribbon cutting and dedication ceremony was held in August 2013, following the completion of new residential dorms, Central Halls I and II.

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011.

As President, Dr. Capilouto has intently engaged with university and community stakeholders to renew our founding mission and vision as a public, Flagship, Land-Grant and Research University. This covenant with the Commonwealth calls upon UK to be a guidepost for the state through a multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

To embolden the institution's enduring legacy, Dr. Capilouto has led a process to enrich UK's academic experience by increasing institutional investments in merit-based financial aid and expanding the University Honors Program. Because of his priorities, the University has enrolled 176 National Merit Scholars in the last two years – tripling the number of incoming Scholars.

Since Dr. Capilouto's arrival, UK has initiated nearly $1 billion in ongoing and approved capital construction to rapidly enhance and expand a quality living/learning experience on the University campus.

Under his leadership, the University engaged in an innovative public/private partnership to revitalize the core of campus and create modern living/learning communities. By 2016, twelve residential facilities across campus will add more than 5,700 beds and 200 active learning spaces.

In addition to the investment in the residential core, the University is self-financing nine major capital projects essential to its academic and financial future: A renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business, a new Academic Science Building, a revitalized Commonwealth Stadium and expanded Nutter Training Center, a renovation and expansion of the Student Center, the continued fit-out of Chandler Hospital, a new home for the School of Art and Visual Studies, and the renewal of the College of Law.

Dr. Capilouto is committed to enhancing UK's research enterprise and graduate education programs through high-quality partnerships, both domestic and international, and by recruiting and rewarding top scholars across the world.

UK's research faculty, staff and students are establishing UK as one of the nation's most prolific public research universities in the nation. In 2013, UK's Markey Cancer Center was designated as a National Cancer Center by the National Cancer Institute; placing UK among an elite group of 22 research universities with the triple crown of federal research awards: NCI-designation, the Clinical and Translational Sciences Award and a federally supported Alzheimer's Disease Center.

Essential to the service mission of the University of Kentucky is the advanced patient care and outreach provided by UK HealthCare. As the flagship academic-medical center in the region, UK serves patients through a network of health care professionals around the Commonwealth while providing acute, sub-specialty medical care at UK Chandler Hospital. In 2013, UK HealthCare was distinguished as a Top Performer by the Joint Commission and won a Rising Star Award from the University Health System Consortium.

Under his leadership, the $3.0 billion flagship university for the Commonwealth has gained significant momentum in fulfilling its broad and visionary mission. In doing so, President Capilouto has invested considerable time in building partnerships with external stakeholders, as well as new and enduring commitments from donors and friends of the institution.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South.

Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

The 2013-14 school year marked a major milestone for Kentucky Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart.

The UK athletic teams soared to a No. 11 final ranking in the NACDA Directors Cup standings -- UK's highest finish in school history -- breaking the previous best of No. 25 set just one year earlier.

The latest record fulfilled one of the goals Barnhart had established in 2008, his ambitious 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, in which Kentucky would rank in the nation's top 15 athletic programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set a goal of a 3.0 composite grade-point average for UK student-athletes and an even greater commitment to community service by Wildcat athletes and staff.

All of the goals presented bold, unprecedented challenges for UK Athletics. The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010 and has been reached several times since, hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.14 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually.

With the Directors Cup goal completed, only one of the heights is yet to be scaled, as the Wildcats need four more championships in the coming year to reach 15 titles.

Hitting the top 15 target in the Directors Cup didn't happen overnight and it didn't happen by accident, either. It was the result of a steady, methodical process which Barnhart began upon his arrival in 2002.

Barnhart started by providing funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports.

Next, Barnhart constructed new facilities, including the Joe Craft Center; new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory.

Currently, Commonwealth Stadium is undergoing major renovations and a new football practice/office complex is on the drawing board. All totaled, Barnhart has completed or is in the process of approximately $249 million of facility construction.

Additional achievements have occurred on and off the field under Barnhart's guidance. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 10-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate. In the arenas of competition, records have been achieved for winning conference championships and two Wildcat teams have earned national championships.

Barnhart's vision extends beyond the realm of athletics. With pressing facility needs on campus as well, Barnhart has made a $65 million commitment for athletics to help fund the new Academic Science Building. And, he directs an annual $1.7-million contribution to the University's scholarship program.

Beyond the campus, Barnhart is a member of the NCAA Championship Committee and is on the SEC Network content committee. He also serves on the national advisory boards of Athletes in Action and K-Love Radio.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

Reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Rainier, the tallest peak in the contiguous 48 states, along with Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest in Africa.

Barnhart's family includes his wife, Connie; three children, Blaire, Scott, and Kirby Willoughby; Kirby's husband, McKenzie, and a grandson, Cooper.

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

Season-credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on a space-available basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two and one-half hours prior to kickoff.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS

The official site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis, based on factors such as the length of existence of the site, amount of original copy generated, number of visitors to the site, the number of full-time employees on the site, the journalistic experience of the reporter(s) and space availability. All credential privileges are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics.

SEC INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (859) 257-3838. E-mail addresses and other contact info are on the next page. Our website is UKAthletics.com.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

MONDAY NEWS CONFERENCE

Coach Mark Stoops will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season. The news conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Parking is available outside Gate One of Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den by entering at Gate One and proceeding down the concourse to the Den.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 25 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 24. No news conference is scheduled for Sept. 15 or Nov. 17, the Mondays prior to UK's open dates.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- lunch is from 11:15 a.m. to 11:50
- UK Olympic sports coach from 11:50 a.m. to noon
- Coach Mark Stoops from noon to 12:20

News conferences are live streamed on the Internet. A link is available each week on UKAthletics.com.

Video excerpts from the news conference will be available by late Monday afternoon. Video will be posted on an FTP site. E-mail tneely@uky.edu for FTP information.

Quotes from the news conference will be posted on UKAthletics.com by mid-to-late afternoon on Monday.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Herb Vincent, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming football game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m. Les Miles, LSU
11:10 a.m. Steve Spurrier, South Carolina
11:20 a.m. Will Muschamp, Florida
11:30 a.m. Derek Mason, Vanderbilt
11:40 a.m. Nick Saban, Alabama

11:50 a.m. Butch Jones, Tennessee
12:00 p.m. Bret Bielema, Arkansas
12:10 p.m. Gary Pinkel, Missouri
12:20 p.m. Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss
12:30 p.m. Kevin Sumlin, Texas A&M
12:40 p.m. Mark Stoops, Kentucky
12:50 p.m. Dan Mullen, Mississippi State
1:00 p.m. Mark Richt, Georgia
1:10 p.m. Gus Malzahn, Auburn

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 14 conference schools and their sports.

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SEC AFFILIATE NETWORK / XOS Digital

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

WILDCAT PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday or Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Training Facility or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations

Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

INTERNET

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

For home games, live in-game statistics and a live blog are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

TENTATIVE 2015 SCHEDULE

As the media guide went to press, the 2015 schedule is being determined by the Southeastern Conference.

The league schedule format will be similar to previous seasons – Kentucky will play every team in the Eastern Division; play one permanent opponent from the Western Division (Mississippi State); and one rotating opponent each year from the Western Division.

locker room area, at a cost to be determined by Mike Dodson of IMG Sports, (859) 226-4390.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

The field-level photo area is located in Room 144, in the southwest portal leading off the field (same portal as used by the visiting team). There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game.

Wireless Internet and a limited number of hard-wired Internet connections (first-come, first-served) are available. Access instructions are posted in the room.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Mark Stoops will conduct his post-game news conference in the Wildcat Den, located under the north grandstand. Stoops will begin his post-game news conference approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of the contest. The media entrance to the Wildcat Den is located in the northwest corner (nearest flagpole) of Commonwealth Stadium.

The Kentucky locker room is CLOSED to all members of the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the Wildcat Den following the conclusion of Stoops' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the contest in order for members of the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Most Kentucky football practices are closed to the media, although interviews are available after most practices. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

Media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

GAME SERVICES

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. Because of construction issues, media parking locations for 2014 are being determined as this book went to press.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call table, located at Gate 12 of Commonwealth Stadium. Media Will Call opens two hours and one-half hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium between the upper and lower grandstands. The media entrance to Commonwealth Stadium is at Gate 12.

The photo deck, radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. All can be accessed via the elevator at Gate 12.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Associate Media Relations Director, in seat 94 of the press box.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

SEC NETWORK/UK ON THE AIR

More coverage than ever of University of Kentucky Athletics will be the theme of the coming year as the SEC Network, a channel dedicated exclusively to the Southeastern Conference, is scheduled to launch on August 14, 2014.

The network will be operated by ESPN as part of a 20-year partnership, and feature coverage of SEC sports, along with news/analysis programs and other content focusing on the SEC's member schools.

The network will air SEC content around the clock, including 45 SEC football games, 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, 50 softball games and additional events from the SEC's 21-sport lineup.

A mix of both existing ESPN personnel and new on-air staff will be present on the network. Most recent staff announced to be featured include Paul Finebaum, Joe Tessitore, Brent Musberger, Jesse Palmer, Greg McElroy and Tim Tebow.

The new venture complements the existing television agreements with CBS and ESPN, which began in 2009 and features every SEC home football and basketball game on CBS or an ESPN affiliate.

On the radio side, UK is completing a 10-year agreement with IMG College (formerly Host Communications). The IMG Sports Network also handles corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage and the official athletics Web site, UKAthletics.com

At press time, IMG had compiled 61 radio outlets, including two stations -- WHAS (840 AM) in Louisville and WCKY (1530 AM) in Cincinnati -- with a clear-channel 50,000-watt signal.

For the 2014 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (25 years with the network, 17th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piccoro (12th season) as the analyst, sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (25th season), pregame analyst Oscar Combs (17th season) and pregame host Neil Price (third season).

Working behind the scenes with the broadcasts are producer Mike Dodson and game-day engineer Daryl Doss.

Kentucky Athletics will have a new radio carrier beginning in summer of 2015, as JMI Sports has been awarded UK's multimedia marketing rights with a 15-year, $210-million agreement.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

RECRUITING MESSAGE TO WILDCAT FANS

FROM COACH MARK STOOPS

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, send electronic messages or make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, their families, or coaches on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective student-athlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (Nutter Training Center, 136 Sports Center Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40506-0277, phone 859-257-3611). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

THE NCAA RULES AND YOU

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed as follows:

Sandra Bell, Executive Associate AD or Rachel Newman Baker, Senior Associate AD
University of Kentucky Athletics
Joe Craft Center
338 Lexington Avenue
Lexington, KY 40506-0604
Phone: (859) 257-8604
E-mail: sbell@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS — "BOOSTERS"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as Twitter or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;
- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or

- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

RECRUITING

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, tweets or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

EXTRA BENEFITS

Prospective, current student-athletes and former student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
